

NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT INCREASE NOTED

Coroner Charges Four Convicts Scalded

BURGLARS TAKE 300-POUND SAFE, FLEE WITH $92

Ashville Garage Raided During Night; Broken Strong Box Found

$96.38 IN CHECKS GONE

No Connection Seen With Nitro-Glycerine Job At Amanda

Burglars removed a 300-pound safe from the Foreman Motor Sales, Ashville, Monday night, opened it and obtained $82.12 in cash and $96.38 worth of checks. In addition $10 was obtained from the cash register.

The safe was found Tuesday by Sherman Fowler and Russell Parson, Ashville Route 2, along the Creek road, Walnut township, about three miles from the village. A chisel and sledge had been used to open the safe. Entrance to the garage was made by breaking in the front door.

The currency taken from the safe included 20 silver dollars. Deputy Sheriff Miller Fissell investigated the theft.

Sheriff's deputies believed that the Ashville robbery and two in Amanda early last Saturday had no connection. The burglars used nitro-glycerine to blow off the door of a safe in the Huston Grain Co. offices. Nothing else in the building was touched and no fingerprints were left. The C. G. Johnson general store was entered, too, in Amanda but an alarm frightened away the thieves.

MORE FARMERS IN STATE JOIN A. A. A. PROGRAM

COLUMBUS, Aug. 23—(UP)—Nearly complete returns today disclosed that 15 percent more Ohio farmers will comply with the corn acreage control program of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration in 1938 than in 1937.

Elmer F. Kruse, state A. A. A. chairman, said that in counties where field agents have completed checks of individual farmer compliance, the results have been "very encouraging." He said the completed counties showed a gain of 15 percent over 1937 in complying farmers.

Kruse also said signs pointed to larger benefit payments than last year to the farmers who have cut their acreage in accordance with A. A. A. quotas. Final state-wide figures on compliance with the corn program will be ready about Sept. 1.

OUR WEATHER MAN

High Monday, 85.
Low Tuesday, 65.

FORECAST
Fair slightly warmer Tuesday; followed by local showers Tuesday night; Wednesday partly cloudy, slightly cooler, preceded by showers in east and south portion.
TEMPERATURES ELSEWHERE
	High Low
Ablene, Tex.	96 72
Boston, Mass.	84 62
Chicago, Ill.	82 62
Cleveland, Ohio	76 68
Denver, Colo.	92 64
Des Moines, Iowa	92 62
Duluth, Minn.	84 62
Los Angeles, Calif.	82 64
Miami, Fla.	74 74
Montgomery, Ala.	94 74
New Orleans, La.	96 78
New York, N. Y.	84 68
Phoenix, Ariz.	106 78
San Antonio, Tex.	96 74
Seattle, Wash.	70 52
Williston, N. Dak.	80 58

Democrats Pick Helvering, Name Executive Board

Only Few Minutes Required to Organize For Fall Campaign; Several Changes Made in New Committee's Lineup

Clarence Helvering, 470 E. Main street, was reelected Monday evening as chairman of the Pickaway county Democratic Central committee in a meeting marked by harmony and the fact that only seven minutes were required to name officers and appoint the Executive committee. Mr. Helvering headed the Central committee during the last two years. There was no opposition to his reelection.

William T. J. Howard, 370 E. Union street, was renamed as secretary of the Central committee.

The new Executive committee, which will direct the Fall campaign, is expected to meet within the next week to select its chairman. Lawrence E. Goeller, who was reappointed to the committee Monday evening, has served as chairman for the last two years. Party leaders hinted Tuesday that Goeller would be reelected.

FRENCH PLANE ON OCEAN HOP

Azores Isles First Goal Of 37-ton Seaplane On New York Trip

BISCAROSSE France, Aug. 23—(UP)—The 37-ton seaplane, Lieutenant De Vaisseau Paris, France's belated entry in the international ocean trials, took off today for a flight across the Atlantic to New York by the way of the Azores.

The Lieutenant De Vaisseau Paris, forced to abandon a similar attempt last week, was to fly first to Lisbon, Portugal. It probably will remain here a day before resuming the flight, stopping to refuel at Horta, Azores, and then going on to Port Washington, N. Y., New York City's seaplane base.

The big plane took off last Thursday for Lisbon but had gone only a few miles when it was forced to return by a faulty propeller. It carried a crew of eight, commanded by Pilot Henri Guillaud.

GOVERNOR SAYS NO PENSION CUT TO BE GENERAL

COLUMBUS, Aug. 23—(UP)—There will be no general reduction in old age pensions in Ohio this year, Governor Martin L. Davey pledged here today.

The governor's statement was in contrast to one issued last week by M. Ray Allison, state finance director, who predicted a horizontal reduction in the pensions being paid 110,000 Ohioans would have to be made, probably in September.

Allison based his prediction on the fact that he had borrowed $800,000 from the general revenue fund to pay old age pensions in July and another $415,000 to meet August pensions. He later modified the statement, however.

Governor Davey declined to discuss the charges of maladministration made against his administration by the Federal Social Security board.

The federal board set Monday as the date to hear the charges and determine whether federal contributions to old age pensioners in Ohio shall be withheld.

The federal government has contributed $36,648,000 to Ohio pensions since early in 1936.

DIONNES ON "EXHIBIT"

CALLANDER, Ont., Aug. 23—(UP)—The two daily "personal appearances of the Dionne quintuplets will be resumed today, it is expected, after a two week interruption due to slight sore throats.

NAKED BODIES FOUND IN CELLS IN PHILADELPHIA

County Official Threatens Startling Disclosures After Investigation

VICTIMS STRIKE LEADERS

Report That Men Died In Fight Scoffed At By Two Physicians

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23—(UP)—Coroner Charles H. Hersch said today that an autopsy on the bodies of four convicts found dead at the Philadelphia county prison would bring "some startling disclosures."

"We have every bit of evidence necessary to get to the bottom of this situation," Hersch said. The convicts were among a few holdouts in a hunger strike which at one time involved 650 inmates.

The coroner described a police report that the men were injured fatally while fighting among themselves as "false and ridiculous." He said that every outward appearance of the bodies indicated that the prisoner's deaths had been caused by beatings they apparently received or by scalding.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 23—(UP)—Four convicts found dead in adjoining cells in Philadelphia county prison were scalded to death, Coroner Charles M. Hersch charged today.

Two state investigations began today into the strange deaths in the crowded county prison which terminated a noisy hunger strike of 650 convicts against the quality of the prison food. The naked bodies of the convicts—two in each of two adjoining cells—were found Monday. Other prisoners were in the cells with the bodies. The cells were in the "isolation block," customarily used for disciplinary purposes.

While Hersch and his physician, Dr. Martin Crane, insisted that the men had died of suffocation and that the circumstances were "suspicious," prison officials insisted that the deaths had been due to accidents and that the men were "radical agitators" who had

TAMMANY, F. D.'S AIDES TO MEND DISAGREEMENT

NEW YORK, Aug. 23—(UP)—Reports that Tammany Hall might be making peace with the New Deal were revived today as the result of the selection of Christopher D. Sullivan, Tammany leader, to a committee to pick officers for the Democratic state convention at Rochester Sept. 29.

This committee of seven is presided over by Postmaster General James A. Farley, who is state and national party chairman, and it will confer with President Roosevelt to get his views on the selection of a temporary chairman, a keynote speaker, and others.

It was the first time in six years that Tammany, the Democratic machine of New York county—one of the five counties in New York City—has received any appointments from the state Democratic organization.

Sen. Robert F. Wagner has been mentioned as the keynote speaker and also as a potential candidate for governor.

MUSIC TEACHER NAMED

Mrs. Edna Powell Kettner, Columbus, was employed by the Monroe township board of education Monday night as instrumental music teacher to teach on Tuesday and Thursday of each week. Mrs. Kettner, a graduate of Capital university, formerly taught at Rushville, Fairfield county.

Press Conference Just Another Nap to F. D. R. 3rd

POSING for his first photographs, the grandson of the President, who, in all probability will be named Franklin D. III, made no attempt to keep awake, and simply dozed off. He is in the arms of his pretty mother, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., the former Ethel duPont, on the grounds of her father's estate, "Owl's Nest," at Greenville, Del.

Motor Industry Looks For Radical Changes

DETROIT, Aug. 22—(UP)—Observers of the motor industry today predicted a booming market this Fall in the wake of anticipated radical changes in the 1939 automobile.

Reports drifting from the engineering laboratories indicate that the new models will have extreme "eye appeal." Manufacturers, according to reports, are hoping that a radically different 1939 car will serve as the sparkplug to lift the industry out of recession and start it and many allied industries toward better times.

More optimism than has been seen in months prevails in the industry and facts and figures support that attitude. Already thousands of workers idle during the Summer slack period and the annual changeover have been called back to work. Within another month the final assembly lines at all plants are expected to be in full swing.

Because the automobile is the No. 1 customer for raw materials of the 48 states, A. H. Ward, president of Ward's automobile reports, predicted the industry would be the pace-maker in leading the nation out of the recession.

Heavy orders for steel, glass, cotton and mohair, gray iron, lumber and a half dozen other metals have been placed or are being drawn up by the car manufacturers.

Other Industries Benefit

Ward pointed out that in addition to these purchases, the anticipated boom in automobile sales would have a vital and stimulating effect on gasoline, rubber and advertising. Railroad and motor freight lines also will reap benefit.

An additional stimulus to new car sales may be price decreases. Ward's reports predict the price tags of some cars will be under those of the 1938 models.

"There is every indication that from now on, the automobile industry will be on the way up," Ward said. "Each week from now until October will find the rate of manufacture increased. Present signs point toward a prosperous season."

A flood of used cars such as the one which paralyzed the industry during the last year is not expected during the coming season. William Callahan, editor of Automotive News, said dealers nearly were sold out of 1938 models and were thinning out what few used cars remained on their lots.

"By the time new cars are in the show room, he predicted, "buyers will be scrambling to place their orders. It looks like a big year."

PAYROLLS GAIN HALF MILLION IN LAST MONTH

Perkins Declares Factory Jump First Since Last September

MARKET CLIMBS AGAIN

All Sections Join General Motors In Brilliant Showing

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23—(UP)—Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins reported today that factory employment increased 40,000 in July and that weekly payrolls increased by nearly $500,000.

She said that the report marked a definite improvement in the unemployment situation and that it was the first employment gain shown in any month since September, 1937.

"Gains of 0.7 percent in factory employment and of 0.4 percent in payrolls were reported, although factory employment normally declines by about 1 percent and payrolls by about 4 percent in July," the secretary said. "Non-agricultural employment usually declines by about 140,000 workers in July."

General Motors at New High

NEW YORK, Aug. 23—(UP)—General Motors common stock made a new high for the year today at 48 1/2 up 1 1/2 points and led the stock market higher after an irregular, dull opening.

All sections joined the rise. Steel shares were strong spots. Coppers turned higher after a lower opening. Building issues were strong, several at new highs. Automobile equipment issues and rubbers followed the motors upward. Rails and utilities firmed small amounts.

New highs were made by Bendix at 23 3/4 up 1/2; Celanese 25 1/2 up 1/2; and Penick and Ford 58 up 1 1/2.

New tops were made by Certain-Teed Preferred at 41 1/2 up 3/4; National Gypsum at 14 1/2 up 1/2; Certain-Teed common equalled its high at 10 1/2 up 1/2.

Gains in the list ranged to more than 3 points. Among the best were A. M. Byers preferred at 38 up 3/4; Du Pont 132 1/2 up 2 1/2; Minneapolis Honeywell 81 1/2 up 2; and U. S. Rubber preferred 89 up 2.

Bethlehem was up more than a point and gains of a point or more were made by Chrysler, American Tobacco, Goodyear, Union Carbide, Union Pacific and Westinghouse Electric.

OHIOAN VICTIM OF TRUCK CRASH IN PENNSYLVANIA

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Aug. 23—(UP)—One Ohio man was killed and another injured seriously today when their light delivery truck failed to negotiate a turn in a fog and struck a tree.

Harold A. Fisher, 25, of Pomeroy, O., was killed instantly, his body being caught in the truck when the tree jammed the right side of the truck into his body.

The driver, Robert Ross, 23, of Cleveland, is in Clearfield hospital with a possible skull fracture and back injuries. His condition was fair and he was in a semi-conscious state.

The two were members of an eight-man advertising crew for Proctor and Gamble and had made their headquarters here for a few days.

LEAUGE OF NATIONS HAS PART IN THIS MARRIAGE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23—(UP)—An Episcopalian clergyman married a Chinese couple yesterday in the home of a lawyer of Greek descent, Miss Pearl Moy and Chen Hong, restaurant owner, were married in the garden of G. W. Sakis by the Rev. Eliot Thomson, who also was born in China.

MORE JAPANESE POUR INTO CHINA

60,000 Troops To Join In Offensive Against Yangtse Valley

SHANGHAI, Aug. 23—(UP)—Sixty thousand Japanese reinforcements poured to the front in the Yangtse valley today in preparation for a steam-roller offensive on all fronts.

Squadrons of Japanese planes systematically battered defenses all along the line, while artillery poured shells into Juichang and Matouchen, hotly contested towns near Kiukiang.

Chinese said 20,000 Japanese troops had joined the Singtze column, trying to drive southwestward and out the Nanchang railway near Tehan, 45 miles south of Kiukiang.

They said Japanese troops drove within three miles of Juichang, which they admitted was in danger of imminent collapse after 18 Japanese planes had bombed it all day.

Wusueh, on the South bank of the Yangtse 25 miles West of Kiukiang, was similarly bombed.

Japanese planes continued attacks on Hankow's communications, including an attack by 18 Japanese planes at Chuchow, on the Canton railway 23 miles south of Changsha.

The Chinese admitted losses on (Continued on Page Two)

ROSS COUNTY'S SCHOOL CHIEF PLAYED IN SUIT

CHILLICOTHE, Aug. 23—Suit was filed in Common Pleas court Monday by taxpayers of Twin rural school district charging that Myron Gire, superintendent-elect is "an unfit and dangerous person to intrust with supervision of teachers and the instruction of children in said district." The action asks that the board of education be perpetually enjoined from hiring Gire and restrained from paying any money to him.

The 12 taxpayers who filed the action claim that they are actual representatives of 540 electors of the district out of 641 who voted at the last general election and that they bring the action on behalf of all taxpayers and electors of the district.

The action is another step in the school controversy at Bourneville which split the community into factions and has raged since last April when Gire was appointed as superintendent.

THREE ASHVILLE BOYS TO JUDGE AT STATE FAIR

Three Ashville youths with a Washington township boy named as alternate will represent Pickaway county 4-H clubs in stock judging at the Ohio State fair next week. Examination papers prepared Monday were graded Tuesday at the Farm Bureau office by Prof. L. K. Baer of the department of animal husbandry at Ohio State university.

The judging team will include Bus Hedges, George Cummins and Frederick Barthelmas, Ashville, with Philip Reichelderfer as alternate. The youths will perform against other Ohio 4-H clubbers next Monday when they judge swine, cattle and horses.

TWO OHIO GIRLS KILLED

GREENVILLE, O., Aug. 23—(UP)—Barbara Brown, 13, daughter of Dwight L. Brown, supervisor of music in the Greenville Public Schools, and Mary B. Rahn, 14, were killed here late yesterday when their automobile struck a bridge. Two other occupants of the car were injured seriously.

NAKED BODIES FOUND IN CELLS IN PHILADELPHIA

County Official Threatens Startling Disclosures After Investigation

(Continued from Page One)

been ring leaders in the hunger strike.

Autopsy Scheduled

Daniel B. Conlin, senior state prison inspector, undertook one investigation. William J. Donovan, senior investigator of the state department of welfare, was assigned by Welfare Secretary Charles I. Engard to undertake another. An autopsy will be performed today to establish definitely the cause of death.

William B. Mills, superintendent of the prison, first said the men had killed themselves. Later he refused to comment on the reports of Dr. Hersch and of other persons who viewed the bodies in the morgue. Hersch, Dr. Crane, and others said that the bodies showed signs of having been scalded, burned, immersed, and beaten.

After withdrawing his first statement of suicide, Mills said that the men had been agitators who used the hunger strike as an "excuse to make trouble." He offered no other theory as to how they died except to suggest that they might have killed one another fighting. After a day of silence from officials, two semi-official explanations were offered.

Prisoners Questioned

Detective Sergeant Martin Curran announced that he had interviewed other prisoners in the isolation block, particularly Joseph Forte, 24, and Morris Spatz, 27, one of whom had been in each of the cells in which the deaths occurred, and had concluded that the four men died of "over-exertion, exhaustion, and under-nourishment."

Judge Harry S. McDevitt, president of Common Pleas court, who on Saturday at Mills' behest tried to quiet the striking prisoners, said the men had torn out steam pipes in their cells to use as weapons and had been scalded by escaping steam.

The dead convicts were Joseph Walters, 28, serving 20 to 50 years for burglary; Harry Osborne, 22, 10 years for burglary; Frank Comodeca, 46, 10 to 20 years for burglary; Joseph McQuade, 26, three years for larceny.

Dead Wagons Called

While this was going on, something was happening to the convicts in the isolation block. Yesterday dead wagons were sent to convey the bodies to the morgue where Dr. Crane examined them and said that one was blue and the other was black. He also found bruises in which blood was congealed, hanging flesh, and "nasal congestion" which he said was typical of persons who had been killed by gas, steam, or hot water.

Mills first suggested suicide. Later in the day, after reports had been published that the bodies gave the appearance of having been scalded in live steam or immersed in boiling water, he issued a statement denying that the convicts had been "handed with physical violence by any of my guards or men. . . . We did not use any rubber hoses, live steam, or tear gas to calm the men."

The strikers' complaint had been the monotony and quality of the prison fare. They alleged that their meals were an unending succession of fried egg plant, hamburger, and macaroni.

ESTATE TAX LISTED

Mrs. Catherine Crist, N. Court street, his widow, and J. Wallace Crist, his son, will pay $299.98 and $36.15, respectively, in inheritance tax on the estate of William E. Crist. The net estate subject to tax is listed at $37,045.24. Report on the inheritance tax was filed in Probate court Monday.

FORECLOSURE ASKED

Action to foreclose a judgment lien of $560.50 and interest was filed in Common Pleas court Tuesday by The Colonial Finance Co., Columbus, against Ada Miller, Circleville, and others.

Mainly About People

ONE MINUTE PULPIT

Every man shall bear his own burden.—Galatians 6:5.

Mrs. Eleanor W. Bisell of E. Main street spent Tuesday in Columbus attending the convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The late Mr. Bisell was a member of National Capital No. 137 V. F. W. of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Bisell was a member of the auxiliary of the chapter during their residence in that city. Mrs. Bisell passed the day renewing acquaintances.

Man Saves his Wife by having Graham do her canning. Try it. Factory 350 E. Mound St.—ad.

Mrs. E. A. Ballou of Jackson township, who has been seriously ill for several months, is slowly improving after a recent minor operation at White Cross hospital, Columbus.

The annual fish fry of the Tarlton church will be held on Thursday, Aug. 25, instead of Saturday, the usual date. The Tarlton church, of which the Rev. S. C. Elsie is pastor, arranges the fry.

Persons from 40 families, the majority of them groups receiving regular direct relief from the county relief office, had registered up to noon Tuesday. Re-registering of the relief clients, in which they were required to furnish sworn statements, is being made in compliance with recent state laws.

Court News

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Charles C. French to Clarence F. Lucas, 18 of an acre in New Holland.

Pearl E. Smith, et al., to George Poling, 117 1/2 acres, Jackson and Muhlenberg townships.

Sarah B. Tracy to Dallas L. Tracy, undivided one half interest in lots No. 1368 and 1369, Circleville.

Miller Dinkel to Daniel F. Dunkel, undivided one-fifth and one-half interest in 720 acres, Circleville township.

Augusta Smith to George Poling, 117 1/2 acres in Muhlenberg and Jackson townships.

Nelson Shaffer to Charles Irvin Holland, 1.40 acres in Deercreek township.

W. T. Porter to Earl Liff, et al., 75 of an acre and lots four and five in Era.

Jesse Walker to Elizabeth Walker, one-half acre in Derby.

J. H. Staley, et al., to Julia Weaver, part lots 19 and 20, Ashville.

Everett F. Hodson, et al., to Donald E. Exline, 147 acres in Perry township.

V. T. Reber, et al., to Stella I. May, undivided one half interest in lots 10 and 11, East Ringgold.

Real estate mortgages cancelled, eight.

Real estate mortgages filed, eight.

Chattel mortgages filed, 29.

PROBATE

Elizabeth Voll estate, final account approved.

William E. Crist estate, determination of inheritance tax filed.

George Barthelmas guardianship, first account approved.

Catherine Helm estate, final account approved.

Paul Wilson guardianship, fifth partial account approved.

G. W. Limebaugh estate, application and entry for authority to improve real estate filed.

COMMON PLEAS

Farmers National Bank v. Roy Hinkel, et al., case settled and dismissed.

City Loan & Saving Co. v. Roy Hinkel, et al., case settled and dismissed.

The Colonial Finance Co. v. Ada Miller, et al., action to foreclose judgment lien for $560.50 and interest filed.

SCHOOL HEADS TO MEET SEPT. 3 FOR CONFERENCE

First meeting of the county superintendents for the 1933-39 school term will be held Sept. 3. Next regular meeting of the county board of education will be held Sept. 7.

Pickaway county schools will open Sept. 5 and 6. Although the opening day has been set as the sixth, some schools will hold short organization sessions on Sept. 5.

CAMERA TRAP FOR THIEF FAILS; DEVICE GONE NOW

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 23.—(UP)—Capt. Bruce Poole of the Raleigh detective force rigged up a synchronized flashbulb and camera to be tripped when a stamp thief at the state department building opened a vault door. The thief got the stamps, tripped the flashbulb and carried the $150 the flashbulb and carried the $150

THOMPSON ON PROBATION

Leroy Thompson, of Kingston, who has spent 76 days in the county jail on a fine of $100 and costs and 60 days sentence, was placed on probation Tuesday by Judge Meeker Terwilliger to pay the balance of $79.65 still due on his account. Thompson was fined and sentenced on a charge of driving when intoxicated.

FRENCH PLANE ON OCEAN HOP

Azores Isles First Goal Of 37-ton Seaplane On New York Trip

(Continued from Page One)

met, veteran of many Atlantic flights.

The speed on the Lieutenant De Vaisseau Paris will be slightly above 100 miles per hour. Originally built three years ago, it flew the South Atlantic and sank in the harbor of Pensacola, Fla., during a wild storm. It was returned to France and rebuilt.

A sister ship to the Lieutenant De Vaisseau Paris is being built by the Latecore company and will be considerably faster. Later, a 60-ton flying boat will be constructed, according to plans.

The French are far behind other nations in trial trans-Atlantic flying looking toward establishing commercial lines. German planes made eight crossings in 1936, 14 in 1937 and seven so far this year. The German seaplane Nordmeer arrived at Port Washington yesterday after a flight from the Azores. British planes made 10 trans-Atlantic flights in 1937 and two this year. American planes made six flights in 1937.

CHERBOURG, France, Aug. 23.—(UP)—Four men were drowned and two rescued today when a French military seaplane sank while landing in Cherbourg harbor. Six army officers were burned to death last night when two twin-engine bombers collided in mid-air during maneuvers near Grenoble.

SUSPECT QUESTIONED IN THEFT OF MANY CHICKENS

One man was arrested Monday for investigation after 44 of between 60 and 75 chickens stolen from Mr. and Mrs. James Steymour, Saltcreek township near Laureville, were recovered by R. E. Armstrong, deputy sheriff. The chickens were stolen Saturday night. A poultry dealer who purchased some of the chickens aided the sheriff's department in locating the fowls.

MARKETS

Cash quotations made to farmers in Circleville.

Wheat	58c
Yellow Corn	46c
White Corn	46c
Soybeans	74c

Cream 22c
Eggs 20c

POULTRY

Hens	14c
Leghorn fies	12c
Leghorn hens	10c
Heavy springers	14-15c
Old roosters	8c

CLOSING MARKETS FURNISHED BY THE J. W. ENHELMAN & SONS

WHEAT

Open	High	Low	Close
May—68	68 1/2	67 3/4	68 1/2
Sept—63 1/4	64 1/4	63 1/4	63 3/4
Dec—65 1/2	66 1/2	65 1/2	65 3/4

CORN

Open	High	Low	Close
May—50 1/2	51 1/2	50 1/2	51 1/4
Sept—51 1/2	52 1/2	51 1/2	52 1/4
Dec—48 1/2	49 1/2	48 1/2	49 1/4

OATS

Open	High	Low	Close
May—25 1/2	26 1/2	25 1/2	25 3/4
Sept—23 1/2	24 1/2	23 1/2	23 3/4
Dec—24 1/2	25 1/2	24 1/2	24 3/4

CLOSING LIVESTOCK MARKET, FURNISHED BY THE PICKAWAY COUNTY FARM BUREAU

CINCINNATI

RECEIPTS—Hogs, 2046, steady; Heavies, 250-275 lbs., $8.40; Mediums, 200-250 lbs., $8.65; 180-200 lbs., $8.55; Lights, 160-180 lbs., $8.35; 140-160 lbs., $7.50; Pigs, 100-140 lbs., $6.50; $7.25; Sows, $5.75; $6.00.

Cattle, 410, $9.00; $10.00, steady; Calves, 403, $10.50; $11.00, 50c higher; Lambs, 2155, $8.00; $8.75, steady.

CHICAGO

RECEIPTS—Hogs, 15000, slow, 10c@15c lower; Mediums, 200-240 lbs., $8.65; $8.85; Cattle, 10000, $12.50; 25c lower; Calves, 1200, $11.00, strong; Lambs, 8000, $8.75, weak, 15c lower.

INDIANAPOLIS

RECEIPTS—Hogs, 1000, 10c@20c lower; Mediums, 220-230 lbs., $8.65, $8.65; $8.75.

PITTSBURGH

RECEIPTS—Hogs, 300, 10c lower; Mediums, 170-225 lbs., $9.15; $9.25; Cattle, 100, $11.00; Calves, 100, $10.50; $11.50; Lambs, 200, $8.75; $9.25, 25c higher.

We Pay CASH for Horses $3—Cows $2 of Size and Condition Hogs, Sheep, Calves & Colts Removed Quick Service CALL Trucks Clean Phone 104 Reverse Charge—Pickaway Fertilizer Circleville, O. A. JAMES & SONS

Duce Defied

JEAN ZAY, French minister of education, is pictured above. With his wife, an entourage of 15 guides and 14 porters, and with 20 photographers, he struggled to the top of Mont Blanc. Zay undertook the perilous feat to demonstrate to Mussolini that French statesmen are as rugged as the Italians, who dive over bayonets and leap through rings of fire.

SAWYER MEETS WITH LEADERS TO TALK PLANS

COLUMBUS, Aug. 23.—(UP)—Democratic leaders in Ohio, working toward reorganization of the party command following the primaries, were to hold the first of two meetings today to lay the groundwork for the Fall campaign in contests for governor, United States senator and other offices.

Charles Sawyer, the gubernatorial nominee, invited all candidates to confer for a discussion of party policy prior to the meeting of the state Central committee tomorrow when new Central and Executive committee chairmen will be formally selected and dates fixed for the platform convention.

It was understood the candidates would determine today a choice for state Central committee chairman and that the committee tomorrow probably would ratify the agreement, although theoretically it has sole power to choose the chairman.

The same procedure will be followed in selection of a state Executive committee chairman to manage the campaign, but Arthur L. Limbach, New Philadelphia, is Sawyer's choice for this important post, and according to custom, he will be allowed to dictate the election.

Albert A. Horstman of Dayton, was believed to be the leading contender for chairman of the state Central committee to succeed Earl Hanefeld, Ottawa, state agriculture director in the Davey administration.

Personals

Mrs. Harry Montellus and daughter, Miss Ruth, of Pickaway township were Circleville shoppers, Monday.

Miss Betty Bach of S. Court street is spending the week with Miss Eleanor McCabe of Wayne township.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ballou and daughter, and Miss Bonnie Ballou of Jackson township were Monday visitors in Circleville.

Mrs. David Six of near Ashville was a Monday visitor in Circleville.

Miss Hazel Ward of Jackson township was in Circleville, Monday, on a shopping trip.

Mrs. Franklin Price and son, Bobby, of Jackson township were Monday visitors in Circleville.

Miss Jane Winks, Earl Kaiser, and Raymond Kaiser of Columbus were dinner guests, Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Winks of Jackson township.

Mrs. Mary Trice and daughter, Miss Virginia, of East Orange, N. J. visited Miss Anna E. Black of Saltcreek township, Monday.

While tobacco leaves are maturing in sheds they lose 80 percent of their weight, which is largely water.

SELL YOUR CREAM & EGGS CO-OPERATIVELY to the Pickaway Dairy Ass'n W. Main St.—Circleville

MORE JAPANESE POUR INTO CHINA

60,000 Troops To Join In Offensive Against Yangtze Valley

(Continued from Page One)

The South bank, although they claimed to be holding the Japanese to the North.

The Chinese admitted that they had abandoned Chuchun, 20 miles West of Kiukiang, after the town changed hands several times in one of the most sanguinary battles in recent months.

Some sources believed that the new Japanese attacks were the start of their big push on Hankow, Wuchang and Hanyang, the tri-city area 135 miles above Kiukiang.

BUSINESS FIRM RECORDS SOUGHT BY U. S. PROBES

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—(UP)—Government departments connected with the congressional executive monopoly investigation, has decided to start subpoenaing records of business firms to advance their preliminary studies, a member of the national economic committee said today.

He revealed that the sub-committee appointed to issue subpoenas for production of records and economic data has agreed on issuance of a wide variety of subpoenas.

Insurance firms, whose activities are being studied by the Securities and Exchange Commission to determine their investment-control over other economic units, probably will be the first called on to produce their records, it was said.

"The subpoenas will be issued in the near future, for statistical information," the official said. "The committee will soon begin to use that process to obtain information."

"A number of subpoenas virtually have been decided on."

TWIN MELON GROWN BY WAYNE HOOVER SHOWN

One of the most unusual canteloupes, or muskmelons, as you like, seen in Pickaway county in a long while is on display in The Daily Herald office. It was brought to Circleville, Tuesday, by Wayne Hoover, Jackson township.

The melon is a twin. Either of the two joined melons would make one large one, but joined together they are immense.

The twins will be on display for about a day longer and then will be no more, no more. The resistance is gradually becoming less.

H 4H CLUB NEWS H

Activities of Groups in Pickaway County

WAYNE WORKERS

The Wayne Willing Workers 4-H club met in the school building last week. The meeting was called to order by Mildred Brown, vice president. Virginia Brown gave a demonstration of baking powder biscuits. Joan Downing was assigned to give a demonstration on ginger bread at the next meeting to be held Aug. 31.

Joan Downing, reporter

WEINBERG SAYS HE GAVE HINES $500 EACH WEEK

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—(UP)—George Weinberg, operations manager for Dutch Schultz' multi-million dollar policy racket, testified today that he personally handed to James J. Hines, Tammany district leader $500 a week.

Weinberg, who turned state's evidence to accuse Hines of furnishing political protection for the racket, testified in the trial of the political figure that he met Hines in front of his home at 444 Central Park West, New York, in April, 1932, and gave him the first payment of $500.

He added that thereafter he met the political chieftain every week or two weeks until the latter part of 1932 and paid him that amount, at which time Hines "got a raise."

AUTOIST FINED $100, COSTS FOR DRUNK DRIVING

Fine of $100 and costs was imposed on Asa Rutter, 44, of E. Ohio street, Monday night by Mayor W. B. Cady, on a charge of driving when intoxicated on Corwin and Clinton streets Sunday night. Rutter remained in the city jail Tuesday while he made arrangements to pay his account.

William Hoffman, 18, of Stouts-ville, paid $10 and costs, a total of $18.70, Monday night for reckless operation. He had posted $20 bond to report for a hearing.

GRAND Theatre

Last Times Tonight

"GOLD IS WHERE YOU FIND IT"

Wed. — Thurs.

"FORBIDDEN VALLEY"

SELECT SHORTS

QUILT MAY LEAD TO IDENTITY OF 'MAD BUTCHER'

CLEVELAND, Aug. 23.—(UP)

A tattered quilt in which parts of the 13th torso-murder victim of "The Mad Butcher of Kingsbury Run" were wrapped, and police detectives started a hunt for a swarthy-complexioned junk collector.

Police regarded identification of the quilt as the best lead yet in the four-year search for the mysterious killer.

Charles Damyn, a barber, who lives in E. 9th street, near the foot of which the 12th and 13th victims were found a week ago, told a newspaper that he recognized a picture of the quilt it had published as one he previously had owned and had given to a junkman.

He said he had given it to the man five weeks ago when he saw him prowling in rear of his apartment. Damyn said he had seen the junkman twice and that he was a man about 50 to 55 years old, weighing about 150.

THE NEW CIRCLE Theatre

The Coolest Show in Town

Tonite is Bargain Nite

10:30 TO ALL

WILLIAM BOYD as HOPALONG CASSIDY

"Hills of Old Wyoming"

Note—Lone Ranger is now on Wed. and Thurs.

SCALE CASE SETTLED

The case of John Graham, 20, York street, had been settled out of police court Tuesday, Mayor W. B. Cady said. Graham was arrested early Sunday after damaging some scales, valued at $100, belonging to John Hegele, E. Main street. Officers said Graham paid $38 for damages to the scales and the costs on a charge of destruction of property.

CLIFTONA Last Times Tonight

IT'S A Flamy MOON BUT THEY'RE REALLY IN Love!

MacMURRAY - HILLIARD COCOANUT GROVE SHORTS TOO BEN-BLUE

WED. & THURS.

POVERTY challenges LUCKY every thousand laughs

"RICH MAN POOR GIRL"

Robert Young - Low Ayres Ruth Hussey - Guy Kibbee

Also News Popeye and March Times

ACT NOW AND BE SITTING PRETTY THIS WINTER

GET FREE COAL WITH THE GENUINE ESTATE HEATROLA

SENSATIONAL OFFER . . . AUGUST 13th to SEPTEMBER 3rd ONLY!

ACT FAST. Get this generous gift of Free Coal for ordering your beautiful Estate Heatrola before September 3rd. Start the winter with Free Coal in your bin. Enjoy the comfortable, thrifty, whole-house warmth for which Heatrola is famous.

Right now, thousands of families are replacing heat-stingy, coal-hungry stoves with this beautiful home heater. Come in. Let us show you the sensational work-saving, fuel-saving features of the genuine Estate Heatrola. Don't delay. Get Free Coal for acting now.

HERE'S HOW TO GET FREE COAL

1 Come in, or telephone. Order your Heatrola before September 3rd.

2 Make only a small deposit—pay nothing more until Fall, then begin easy monthly payments.

3 Get 500 to 2000 lbs. of Free Coal when Heatrola is installed this Fall. *Depending on model you choose.

(Left) EXCLUSIVE, INTENSIFIRE AIR DUCT blocks the upward-rushing heat, sends it out into the rooms instead of letting it escape up the flue. Turns waste into warmth.

(Right) NEW ESTALLOY FIRE POT made of nickel chromium alloy, more than doubles the life of this vital part. Saves money on upkeep expense.

Free Coal with the Estate Heatrola Range, Too! Now—bring your kitchen up to date with this beautiful range for coal and wood. "Double" construction throughout. Estalloy fire-box side linings. Ped-a-Lifter Key Plate. Fine broiling facilities. The only range bearing the famous Heatrola name. Get a generous supply of Free Coal for ordering yours now.

Circle City Products Have Stood the Test! DON'T LET ANYONE GIVE YOU A SUBSTITUTE!

STEVENSON'S

148 W. Main St., Circleville, O., Phone 334

For Your Furniture Needs See Stevenson's First! Quality Furniture on Convenient Terms

FOURTH JAILED AS SUSPECT IN KIDNAPING CASE

Member Of Pioneer Olympia Family Named In Attack On Washington Man

OTHERS FACE CHARGES

Attention Paid To Wife Of Physician Blamed For Mutilation Attempt

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 23—(UP)—Police today arrested Robert Smith, 34, member of a prominent pioneer family, as the fourth suspect in the kidnaping, assault and attempted mutilation of Irving Baker, 37 year old former coast guard officer.

Smith was taken into custody at his farm home near Montesano where one of the other suspects, a former town marshal, was arrested. Authorities said Smith had declined to say whether he was in Olympia last Friday night when Baker was beaten.

It was not decided immediately whether charges of kidnaping and assault, already preferred against three men, including Dr. K. W. Berry, a well known and respected Olympia physician, would be filed against Smith.

Smith's arrest came as Mrs. Elizabeth Berry, attractive 27 year old wife of Dr. Berry, said her husband had "reason to be jealous" of Baker. Other than to say she would "stand by my husband," Mrs. Berry declined to elaborate on her statement.

Dr. Berry, 54, William McAlone, once town marshal at Montesano, and James Reddick, taxi cab driver were taken into custody yesterday and charged with the kidnaping and attempted mutilation of Baker.

Dr. Berry told officers that the other three men had assisted him in getting Baker to a gravel pit where the beating occurred last Friday night, but that they did not help him in administering lashes with a leather strap and in beating Baker with the butt of a pistol.

A pair of pliers was used in an attempt to mutilate the former coast guard officer. Baker did not suffer permanent injuries, however, and today he was recovering.

Dr. Berry and Baker were known enemies. Dr. Berry said it was at a party last July 4 when Baker had been particularly attentive to Mrs. Berry, and once before he had reported to authorities that Baker and his wife were too friendly to suit him. At that time, however, he declined to prefer charges against Baker.

TOLEDO SCHOOL HIRES KARL HULS AS NEW TEACHER

Karl Huls, a member of the Williamsport high school faculty for the last several years, resigned Monday to accept a position in the Toledo public school system. Williamsport school officials said that they understood the change was made at a substantial increase in salary.

A. Wendell Boyer, superintendent of the school, said that the board would meet Tuesday evening to consider a successor.

Mr. Huls had been employed for the 1938-39 term as principal and coach.

WELL, I'LL TELL YOU

BY BOB BURNS

The other day I got ahold of a book that tells you how to be a success and the author said that the main rule is to concentrate on a definite goal. Personally I think it's better to go out in the world with an open mind or you're bound to miss something a little bit better than you figured on finding in the first place.

When my cousin Wafford was workin' on the Press-Argus down home, the editor sent him out in the country where they was havin' a big weddin' and told him to hurry back from the weddin' and write the story up. When Wafford came back to the office and had sat around about an hour, without startin' to write anything, the editor says "Why don't you write up that story?" and Wafford says "Well, there was a big gun fight in church, the groom ran off with the brides maid and the bride jumped in the river and the weddin' was called off—so there ain't nothin' to write about!"

News Notes of Interest From Ashville, Vicinity

By S. D. FRIDLEY
Ashville, Phone 79

The clover seed crop is the best this year for a long while, so the farmer members of The Court who were in at yesterday's session told us. The threshing, they said, is mostly being done by the combines used in the wheat harvest, and does a good job of it. Clover seed, they explained, most of the time, commands a high price, but said there is no way of knowing what the market quotation may be next Spring, but it is a good idea to have a supply on hand at any time. During the Summer, great fields of what is known as "sweet clover" could be seen in many fields over the county. This kind of "once bad weed" is now the farmers' good friend as a soil builder.

Met Vernon Peters and Clarence Baum this morning, the first named, when at home, is away down in Louisiana among the rice and oil fields, and the other from along the gulf in Texas at Corpus Christi. Mr. Peters came especially to be present at the celebration of his father's ninetieth birthday which party was held at the Peters' home Sunday. Clarence (Fritz) Baum is here on his annual vacation and his wife, the former Hattie Valentine, and their two children are enjoying this visit among relatives and friends. They will start for the South within a few days, Mr. Baum said. Mr. Peters told us he had made no plans about his visit here and might start for home soon. Said his crop of 230 acres was doing fine and promised at least an average yield. Millions of gallons of water are required to keep these rice fields flooded during the growing season. This water is pumped from large wells and is distributed over the fields by irrigation ditches. Near harvest time pumping ceases and the grain ripens for the cutting and shocking process much the same as our wheat is harvested here.

Mrs. R. W. Turner of Cleveland has spent the past few days here at the home of Miss Anna Sample. This Mrs. Turner was the former Addie Sample, her parents Charles and Mrs. Sample, residents of Ashville for many years.

Contacted what we know as a "sailor boy in uniform" a few evenings ago, and found him to be just another fine youngster willing to talk and answer the many questions we asked him. He told us he belonged to the "naval reserves" and had just returned home from a two-weeks drill on the ship U. S. S. Wilmington. Asked him how many of these sailor boys Uncle Sam had aboard his ship, and he told us they had a crew of two hundred. Had boarded the vessel at Chicago and came through to Toledo. Said along with himself, Philip Pickering, there were six other local recruits, naming them as Harold Thompson, Howard Francis, Dudley Lindsey, Eldon Swower, Lowell Cooper, Max Lynch. Asked him what kind of work he performed on the ship and replied that he worked down below in the boiler room and the thermometer registered at 120 most of the time.

Emanuel Snyder, usually named by those who know him best, as "MAN" or "E. A." and not "MAW" as we had it yesterday evening. We take the blame which doesn't hurt a bit. Mistakes will crawl in. They have a way like that.

DAGON, 25, TAKEN TO REFORMATORY TO START TERM

Ernest Dagon, 25, of S. Scioto street, was taken to the Mansfield reformatory Tuesday by Sheriff Charles Radcliff and Deputy Sheriff Earl Weaver to start a sentence of one to 20 years.

Dagon was sentenced last Friday for violation of a Common Pleas court probation. He was placed on a two-year probation in June after being indicted on charges of embezzlement and auto theft. The sentence was imposed on the

KIWANIS PLAN ENTERTAINMENT

Collins Company To Appear For Benefit Of Club's Child Fund

The Kiwanis club, at its meeting Monday evening, discussed plans for presentation of four weekly entertainments to be offered in the Circleville high school auditorium. The first will be Oct. 3, with others following on Oct. 10, Oct. 24. Sterling M. Lamb is chairman of the committee arranging the series.

The entertainment will be provided by the Collins Festival Co., Rochester, N. Y.

The club's underprivileged and crippled children's funds will benefit from the series, all proceeds to go to the funds.

The weekly events will include: Oct. 3: Rufus Rose Marionettes, billed as comedy and tragedy in miniature. The marionettes appeared at the World's Fair in Chicago.

Oct. 10: Robert M. Zimmerman, "Up From the Bottom of the Sea". Zimmerman is a deep sea diver holding 33 championships in swimming and diving.

Oct. 17: Bessie Andrus Artists, artistic musical program. Several outstanding singers and musicians are with the group.

Oct. 24: Play, "Mary's Other Husband", a Broadway comedy. The club expects to put season tickets on sale soon.

auto theft charge after he was bound to the grand jury on a forgery charge recently.

Shirts Are Easy to Wash

A little Roman Cleanser in washing water dissolves grimy perspiration streaks on collars and cuffs, and makes shirts immaculately snow-white. Saves work and save wear on shirts.

Big Bottle only 15c—at grocers.

ROMAN CLEANSER

whitens clothes safely

MORE OF PENNEY'S FEATURED Back to School BARGAINS

Slide Fasteners! BOYS' COAT SWEATERS

1.49

Popular Cossack style, wool faced for warmth! Solid colors and 2-tone combinations. Values!

6.60

With Two Trousers

This feature starts tomorrow morning at 8:00 o'clock. A limited quantity of sport back suits at only

Patterns Boys Prefer! GOLF HOSE

15¢

Outstanding Values!

They've the smart appearance that appeals to boys plus the durability that mothers demand! All over patterns in a variety of colors. Cuffs have knit-in garters. Save at this low price!

Boys WAISTBAND OVERALLS

59c

Heavy 8 oz. denim, Sanforized shrunk. Copper riveted at all strain points. Sizes 6 to 18.

SPECIAL! SPECIAL! CHILDREN'S LEATHER SOLE OXFORDS

1.00 pr

Here's a bargain in a serviceable all leather, black oxford. Sizes 8 1/2 to 2.

STARTS WED. MORN. 8 O'CLOCK YOUNG MEN'S LEATHER SOLE OXFORDS

1.98

Smart, stylish young men's oxfords in black leather uppers with sturdy leather sole.

Sunny Tucker Tub FROCKS

98¢

Sizes 1-16 yrs.

Superb value for your money in these sturdy, tubfast dresses! Pleated, princess and others.

Little Miss Prep UNDERWEAR

25¢

Trimmed! Tailored!

Fine quality knit rayon panties, bloomers, vests and briefs. They'll launder and wear well! *Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

SMART STYLES FOR SCHOOL... LOW PRICED BOYS' SUITS

6.60

SIZES 7 TO 16

BOYS "OX-HIDE" OVERALLS

220 Denim Sizes 4 to 16 43c

Buy at Penney's Save 20% on School Supplies

4¢ Crayola Crayons, LePage's Grip, Spreaders, Mucilage, Signer Ink, Blue Black Pencil Box, 5 Items Typewriter Paper, Compass Set

8¢

Built Strong and Sturdy! GIRLS' OXFORDS

2.49

See the moccasin-type toe, the clever oval eyelets, and the attractive stitching! Try them on, you'll like the snug support they give your foot, the walking comfort we've built into them. Of smooth brown leather with leather heels, rubber taps.

Mercerized 3/4 Length Hosiery

15¢

School values! Elastic in tops holds them snugly! Fall colors — neat patterns. 6 to 9 1/2.

All Wool! Children's Slipovers

49¢

Big values! A grand choice of styles and popular fall colors! Sizes 2 to 6 years.

Check these items listed below. Special purchases and special mark downs featured for back to school days. Starts 8 o'clock Wed. morn. Be on hand early as quantities on some items are limited.

LADIES, TRIMMED, RAYON PANTIES

Only 8c

GROWING GIRLS OXFORD

Sturdy Black School Shoes 1.50 pr.

Kiddies LUNCH PAIL

Special 17c

Bright, New Patterns—Fast Color Prints. "HOMETOWN" BROADCLOTH

yd. 15c

CLOSE OUT FAST COLOR PRINTED AND PLAIN PERCALE

yd. 5c

GIRLS PRINTED DRESSES

Special Sizes 7 to 14 33c

GOOD QUALITY MUSLIN UNBLEACHED

Yd. Only 4c

COTTON BLANKETS

Bright Plaid Size 66x76 39c

Special Lengths—Bargain Priced SHORT LENGTHS PLAIN AND PRINTED RAYON

yd. 17c

MEN'S FANCY DRESS SOX

Pr. 8c

MEN'S PLAIN WORK SOX

Black, Grey, Brown COLOR Pr. 5c

Fall Colors! HIP SKIRTS

1.49

Flannels and rayon mixtures! Many with slide fasteners. Sizes 8 to 16 years.

All Wool! Sportclad* Sweaters

79¢

Children's slippers in smart novelty stitches — favorite color combinations. 2 to 6

Young Men's SLIDE FASTENER SWEATERS

1.98

Coat style, smart, warm! Part wool in 2-tone colors. Raglan sleeves in contrasting colors.

98¢

Pre-Shrunk, Fast Color! MEN'S SHIRTS

Famous Topflight! BOYS DRESS SHIRTS

White, popular solid shades, new patterns! Roomy sizes, Nu-Craft non-wilt collars attached!

49¢

Carefully tailored, fast color fabrics. Dozens of good looking fancy patterns. Buy a supply.

Girls' Smartly Styled SPORTS SHOES

1.98

A clever new design with the fashionable high-riding front! Rich black suede combined with smooth black leather. Center vamp seam. Leather heels with rubber taps.

Serviceable Broadcloth SLIPS

25¢

Hemstitched Trimming!

Generously sized for comfort—well made to take lots of wear! Buy several now! Sizes to 14

Teen-Age COATS

6.90

Flattering—practical styles! Tailored and dressy styles! 12-16 yrs.

Is Your Child HANDICAPPED?

Of every ten children classified at school as backward, five are found to have defective vision. Poor grades, a dislike of school, headaches, a cross disposition, all are the direct result of deficiencies of eyesight. An unfortunate thing about defective vision is that it is often impossible to detect without a thorough examination. A fortunate thing is that almost every case can be easily corrected with a proper fitting of glasses. Your child deserves perfect vision. Have his, or her, eyes examined before school starts.

Dr. Joseph Staley

127 1/2 W. Main St. Over Wallace Bakery. Phone 279
Office Hours: 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. daily. Saturday until 9 p. m.

BREAD

It is a far cry from the days when bakers of bread placed the dough in large vats and then proceeded to knead it with their feet, to present methods in—

WALLACE'S BAKERY

Today we use highly developed machinery for this purpose, and everything is scrupulously clean.

In addition to this, our long experience in bread making has made it possible for us to turn out bread that is superior in every way.

We know that if you will give our bread one trial, you will become an enthusiastic user of it. This is all we ask!

—Our Trucks Deliver to Your Door Daily—

Ed. Wallace Bakery

... Bakers of ...
HONEY BOY BREAD
and
ED'S MASTER LOAF

PENNEY'S

J. C. PENNEY COMPANY, Incorporated

The Circleville Herald

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald established 1883, and the Daily Union-Herald, established 1894.

Published Evenings Except Sunday by
THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY
210 N. Court street, Circleville, Ohio

T. E. WILSON Publisher

Member Ohio Newspaper Association, United Press, Central Press Association, and the Ohio Select List.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
JOHN W. CULLEN COMPANY
8 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago; 630 Fifth avenue, New York; General Motors Building, Detroit.

SUBSCRIPTION
By carrier in Circleville, 15c per week. By mail, Pickaway county and Circleville trading territory, per year, $3 in advance; Zone one and two, $4 per year in advance, beyond first and second postal zones, per year, $5.50 in advance.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

FARMWARD

ONE of the most interesting facts about occupational trends today is the movement back to the farm. For half a century it has been the other way—toward the cities—growing steadily in strength until lately it began to look as if many of our farm areas would be depopulated. But the great depression, with the slow recovery and the lessons it has taught, changes people's attitude toward life and seems to be restoring the the point of view of their grandparents.

A recent national poll of families on unemployment relief, who altogether number perhaps 20,000,000 individuals, and nearly all in cities, indicates that more than half of them would move to farms if they had a chance. They would be content, they say, with a house to live in and ability to meet expenses on a simple basis as they go along. These satisfactions, they feel, would more than compensate for city opportunities, hampered as those opportunities are by economic uncertainties.

It is well known, too, that in most parts of the country rural life itself has better opportunities than it used to have, better education for the children, less loneliness, more social life and co-operative effort, easier access to town, more all-round facilities for living.

BIG BILLS

A NEWSPAPER publishes a graph of the $10,000 bills in circulation in 1936, 1937 and 1938. Last year the number sank steadily all through the year and this year it has been rising until it has now reached a higher point than any in 1936.

To most Americans that comes under the head of purely academic information. No? Well, then, how are you going to spend yours?

"Gambling Raid in Wealthy Long Island Colony." Poor fellows! They'll have to go back to the stock market.

Not much hope in the Old World without a reshuffling of the cards, and maybe a new deck.

Douglas Corrigan has made it a whole lot easier for boys who, when set on errands, turn up at the ballgrounds.

Great Britain needs another Lawrence in Arabia, though it is doubtful whether even his genius could calm the storm that is brewing in Palestine today.

'ROUND CIRCLEVILLE . Hour by Hour

PAGES from the Diary of an Antiquated Reporter:

Up early and noted in the air that peculiar moist odor that is so evident in the Autumn. Greatly surprised to find it, what with the hot nights and hotter days we have been having. Well, the time is not far away when the first frost will arrive and we will forget all about a high-degree Summer.

Although not commanding much space in the prints, wars continue in Spain and the Orient and Central Europe remains a smoldering powder keg. Probably the time is near when the world will burst into flame again. The American Legion and Veterans of Foreign wars, want no more of the "glory" won on the field of battle, but most other folk are apathetic toward the situation. Maybe they can be touched in another way.

The World War started a trend in taxation in this country that has dealt increasingly heavy blows to consumers and their shrinking budgets. This trend has grown until local, state and national taxes—two thirds of which are hidden to the consumers who ultimately pay them—now take an estimated

Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON AND ROBERT S. ALLEN.

SAILFISH THAT GOT AWAY

WASHINGTON — This is a story the President tells about one fish that got away and one that didn't on his recent Pacific cruise.

Angling from a launch with a light rod, the President suddenly found himself surrounded by a school of sailfish. In a moment he had a giant sailfish on his line. A slashing battle ensued, with the huge fish hurtling itself high into the air time after time.

So strenuous were its efforts that the President was unable to keep a taut line, with the result that one of the fish's leaps developed a big loop in the line.

At that moment another giant sailfish zoomed out of the water and was lassoed by the loop as the hooked fish crashed back into the water. The furious thrashing of the hooked fish tightened the loop, caught under the other fish's dorsal fin, and the President found himself with two raging giants on his line.

Roosevelt had no chance to think what he should do, for almost simultaneously the two fish again hurled themselves high into the air. The strain on the line was too much and the hooked fish broke away, leaving the lassoed fish firmly lassoed.

For twenty minutes it struggled. Finally Roosevelt brought it close enough to be gaffed and dragged into the boat. It was over six feet long.

Chief Boatswain's Mate William A. Bartos, who was with the President, swears the story is true and exhibits as proof the mounted beak of the big sailfish.

NOTE—The President won the pool for the largest catch of the cruise with a 320-pound shark. Runner-up was White House Secretary Steve Early with a 200-pound man eater.

PWA PARADOX

While the President was preaching a higher wage level in Georgia, his PWA people in the same area were chiseling down wages.

These projects are supposed to follow the prevailing wage scale in the localities where constructed, but Howard T. Cole, PWA administrator for nine Southern States, has been consistently cutting under prevailing wage rates.

This has been opposed by PWA labor adviser George Heldman, who has supported the labor union demands. Result has been a row between Cole and Heldman in which the labor champion may lose his job, all because he favors the Roosevelt higher wage policy for the South.

DOUBLE-BARRELED JOLT

Only those in the know caught its significance, but the two-line White House announcement of a new U. S. Marshal for Montana was the smoothest double-barreled load of brickbats ever heaved by Franklin Roosevelt.

One was a sock square on the wagging jam of Senator Burton K. Wheeler, and the other was a lusty boot in the pants to Big Jim Farley.

'ROUND CIRCLEVILLE . Hour by Hour

ed 25 cents from every income dollar.

The National Consumers Tax Commission has just completed an analysis that indicates that today's war clouds foretell net taxes. The report says in part: "Until fighting began in Europe in the mid-summer of 1914 and necessitated a revision of our own tax laws to make up the decline in revenue, nearly all federal taxes had been direct.

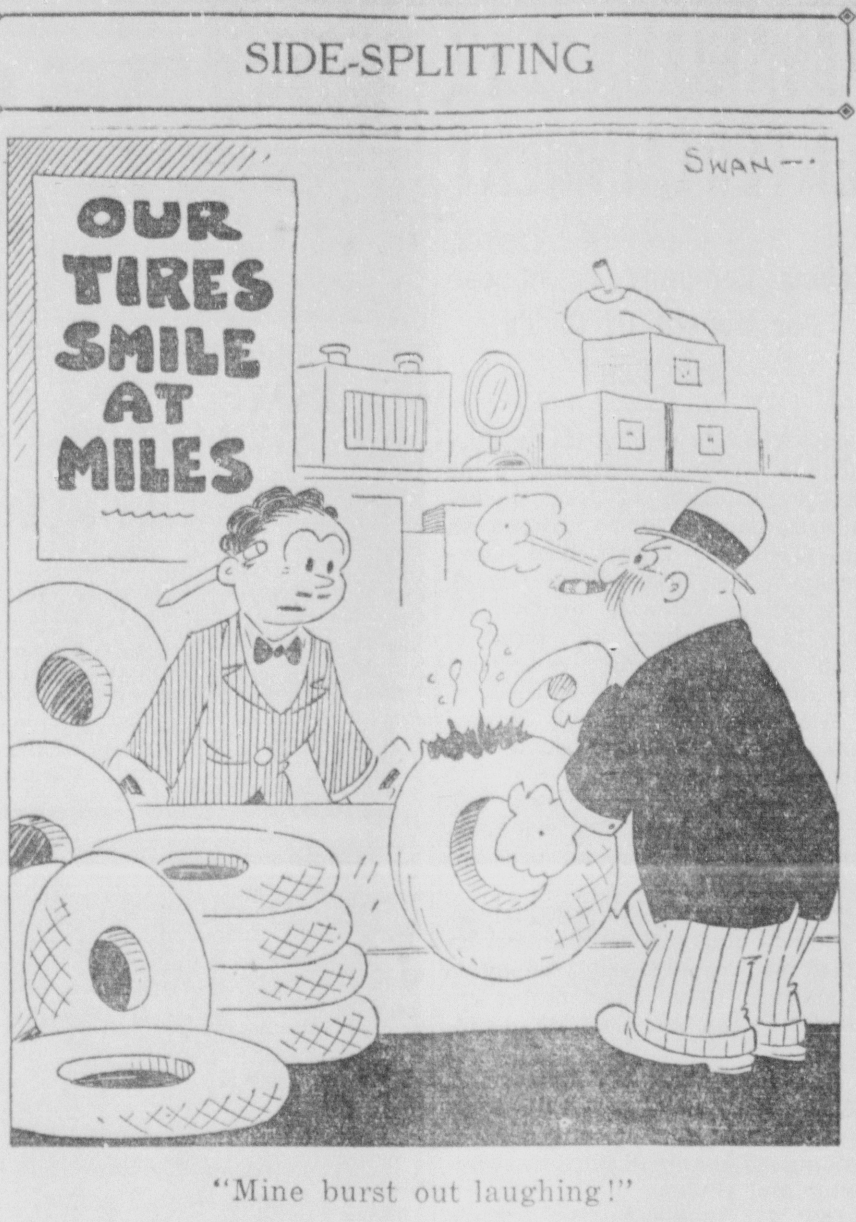

"Revenue had been raised through customs duties, income taxes and taxes on distilled spirits and tobaccos.

"Then, on Oct. 22, 1914, the 'Emergency Revenue' law was passed. It imposed special taxes on some businessmen, on amusements, transportation, telephone and telegraph messages, insurance premiums, perfumes, cosmetics and chewing gum. As the war in Europe spread, we sought more and more revenue. The Revenue Act of Sept. 8, 1916, levied additional excise taxes.

"On fateful April 6, 1917, our country entered the conflict.

"Six months later, the War Revenue Act of Oct. 3 increased income tax rates, levied a war excess profits tax and expanded

SIDE-SPLITTING

DIET AND HEALTH

Folk Like to Diagnose Ills, Prescribe Cures

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

THE AVERAGE person likes to think of himself as intelligent and quite able to take care of himself by his wisdom and wits. To suggest to him that many of his acts are illogical and carry potentialities for harm to himself would arouse his resentment or interest, depending upon his sense of fairness.

In dealing with the problems of health, this lack of logic oftentimes takes curious turns. For example, most people would admit quite readily their complete inability to build a bridge across the Mississippi river because they have had no training in engineering; again they will agree that they could not fly an airplane because of lack of training in aeronautics. The same individual, however, quite blandly assumes complete ability to diagnose a pain in the abdomen, and proceeds with a clear conscience and an air of complete confidence to prescribe a cure.

It is characteristic of most people to pride themselves upon their ability to act in the capacity of a doctor or a lawyer, yet readily admit their complete ignorance of engineering or aeronautics.

We may well ask why this illogical situation exists. The answer probably lies in the fact that engineering and aeronautics are man-made sciences and deal entirely in facts and figures, reason and logic, and it is no reflection upon the intelligence to admit ignorance of a purely technical matter. On the other hand, medicine is not an exact science; so much is not proved; so many forms of treatment are based upon theory rather than fact. In the not distant past it was wrapped in deepest mystery and has gradually evolved through a combination of observation, folklore and scientific investigation.

Folklore Responsible

The folklore element is largely responsible for the present day "hangover" of the confident belief on the part of laymen of an ability to diagnose and prescribe for many of the ailments of the body. It is a matter of family pride to know certain "sure cures" for many diseases, and to take issue with these beliefs is a distinct reflection upon the family intelligence.

Furthermore, the so-called scientific fodder constantly broadcast over the radio and in the public print relative to miraculous "newly discovered" remedies, influences a great many people to a belief that diagnosis and treatment of human ills is a simple cut and dried affair; that for every disease there is a cure; that if the doctor is unable to relieve the patient, doubtless there is someone else who can.

It is a human trait to want to be helpful in sickness and distress. To build a bridge is distinctly the "other fellow's business", but sickness and distress bring out all the latent charity in everyone except the most depraved. It is a good trait and should be encouraged because it is a great solace to the patient.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Seven pamphlets by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, in care of this paper. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabete," "Genuine Hygiene," and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

Looking Back in Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Miss Vernadine LeMay, Commercial Point, was employed as first grade teacher in Scioto township school.

Dr. T. B. Wright, 69, former

Grab Bag

One-Minute Test

- Who is foreign commissar of the Soviet Union?
- Name the widest river in the world.
- Who wrote the opera "Martha"?

Hints on Etiquette

It is poor taste to complain and discuss one's ailments in public conversations.

Words of Wisdom

A day of virtuous liberty is worth a whole eternity of bondage.—Addison.

Today's Horoscope

Many persons whose birthday occurs today have an impulsive brilliance. Their initial judgments usually may be relied upon.

One-Minute Test Answers

- Maxim Litvinoff.
- The Amazon. (It is 50 miles wide at the main mouth.)
- Friedrich von Flotow (1812-1883).

We Pay For Horses $3- Cows $2

of Size and Condition
HOGS SHEEP CALVES COLTS
Removed Promptly

CIRCLEVILLE FERTILIZER

TELEPHONE 1364
Reverse Charges E. G. Ruchbach, Inc.

TWO WORLDS

BY MAUD McCURDY WELCH
Written for Released by CENTRAL PRESS ASSOCIATION

CHAPTER 45

AFTER NICK left, the tall blond young man came back, took his seat silently, and everything was as quiet as before. There were a dozen questions Noel would have liked to ask him, but remembering how surly he had been, she decided not to try to make him talk, but leaned back against the cushions, now and then taking an uneasy nap.

The long night passed at last. Another breakfast tray of coffee and sandwiches was brought in. When she had finished with it, the young man himself took it out and remained away from the room about 20 minutes.

This gave Noel a chance to go to the windows and try to get some idea of where she was and the distance from town. This gloomy old house seemed to be situated in a sort of wood or forest. There were trees in every direction, but there didn't seem to be a road of any kind leading up to the house. There must be a road, of course, Noel thought, remembering the car which had brought her here. But wherever the road was, it was cunningly concealed.

Noel thought dimly that there couldn't be a better hiding place anywhere. The immediate grounds surrounding the house were overgrown with scrubby trees and weeds. Everything about the place gave it an air of desertion.

Noel was still standing at the window when the blond young man came in. "I must ask you again to stay away from the window," he said, taking his seat.

Noel went back to the divan and sat down wearily among the cushions. How much longer would she be kept a prisoner here? Would Nick really be waiting for her tonight in case she did manage to get out the window? Didn't he know the windows were all locked?

Gradually Noel's unhappy thoughts went back to little Betsy. Poor lonely little girl, she knew Betsy was missing her. Then Noel thought of Laurie. She did hope that Laurie was already planning her marriage, getting ready for a little home. That was where Laurie belonged. She was a born homemaker, and Jimmy would be a good husband.

And of course Noel couldn't keep her thoughts away from Julian, even though she knew the less she thought of him now, the better off she would be. Every time his strong, dark face came before her, a sharp pain tore at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help wondering if there wouldn't be a time when he would wake up and find Ruth Chester wasn't quite the paragon of goodness and efficiency he had believed.

In the late afternoon, Noel caught the sound of a car coming toward the house. A short time afterward, two men came into her room. Following them was Nick. The first man was squat and bullet-headed, with powerful bulging muscles and rat-like eyes. The other man looked to be of the prosperous business type, well-groomed, prematurely gray, with intelligent, deep-seated gray eyes.

Only his grim expression revealed him to be the type of criminal Noel believed him to be.

Nick stood off to one side.

"Neat piece of goods, what?" the bullet-headed man ejaculated. The gray-haired man gave him a frown. Then he moved toward Noel and said in a cultivated voice, "We are ready, Miss Shayne, for you to write the note to your uncle."

Noel caught a glance of warning in Nick's eyes. Remembering his instructions, she said coolly: "You seem very certain that I intend to write the letter."

The gray-haired man's glance wandered to the man with the powerful muscles. "You won't refuse," he said grimly.

Noel saw that Nick too had glanced at the squat, heavy set, bullet-headed man.

"You see," the gray-haired man began, "Bill has a way of persuading our little friends when they prove stubborn."

"You'd better sign it, Miss Shayne," Nick spoke up. "As I told you before, these men mean business."

Noel knew, however, that Nick was playing for time. She said after a pause, "Will I be released when the money is paid?"

The two men exchanged glances. "Why, of course," they exclaimed in unison. Then Nick said, "You have no reason to fear that you'll still be kept here."

"I'd like to have more time to— to think it over," Noel ventured. She was trying to stall as Nick had told her to do.

"You've had time enough," the gray-haired man retorted.

"After all, there are so many things to be considered—" Noel stalled again.

"The only thing to be considered is whether or not you're going to write the note," the gray-haired man said impatiently.

"And if I refuse?" Noel tried to say coolly.

"As I said before, you won't refuse," the gray-haired man again glanced at the bullet-headed Bill.

"Please give me a little more time," Noel resorted to pleading.

"How much more time?" came the question.

"Another day," Noel said, looking at Nick and thinking she read approval in his impassive expression.

"That's too long." The man turned to Nick. "Shall we give her any more time, or turn her over to Bill to be persuaded?"

Not a flicker crossed Nick's face as he said, "Let Bill have a sharp pain tear at her heart. No doubt Julian had made a wise choice. He was like that. He had cut a clear path for himself, led first by his ambition, and there was no turning aside for him. But Noel couldn't help

—: Social Happenings - Personals - News of Interest to Women:—:

Perry's Victory To Be Observed In Ceremony

1812 Daughters Invited to Service

Mrs. Orion King, president of the Major John Boggs chapter, United States society of Daughters of 1812, received an invitation, Tuesday, for the chapter to be present at the celebration of the 125th anniversary of the Battle of Lake Erie, Perry's Victory Day, September 10.

The day will be observed with impressive ceremonies at Sandusky, and members of many chapters in Ohio will be present. The program for the day includes plans for a dinner for 1,000 guests in the evening. Tentative plans are under way for several members of the Circleville chapter to attend.

Church of Brethren Aid

The August meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the church of the Brethren was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Griener, S. Court street.

Services were opened with group singing, scripture reading by Mrs. Eunice Sterling and prayer by Mrs. Emma Essick followed by the Lord's prayer by the members of the society.

Two contests were held with Betty Tatman and Mrs. Essick winning prizes in the first. Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Griener in the second. Box lunches were served. 24 members and guests being present.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Essick, E. Mound street, September 15. New officers for the organization will be elected at this time.

Winter Family Reunion

The Winter family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. L. E. Jones, Williamsport, Sunday.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winter and son, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Winter, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Winter, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Beeny and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Winter and children, Malcolm Winter, Miss Mary Jones, Miss Alice Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Orr, of Newark; Mrs. Annie Creighton, Mrs. Harry Rector and son, Douglas, Ralph Cook, Jesse Lyman, Robert Jones, Daisy and Pauline Jones of Williamsport.

Hinton Family Reunion

The annual Hinton family reunion was held Sunday at Mound City Park, Chillicothe. This year the reunion was held earlier than usual in honor of Lawrence Hinton and son, Buddy, who have arrived from Syracuse, N. Y., for a visit in the community. The occasion also celebrated the birthday of Miss Donnagene Weiler. The affair this year was unique in that every member of the family attended the reunion.

Those present were Mr. Hinton and son of Syracuse, N. Y.; Mrs. Margaret Hinton and daughter, Miss Leora of Chillicothe; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ater, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hissey, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Weller and children. Maynard, Donnagene and Joan, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley McDill and sons, Marvin, Donald Lee and Carl of Williamsport; Lloyd Hinton and daughter, Doris Jean and Mr. Beamblossom of Springfield; Mrs. Emma Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hinton and children, Leroy, Phyllis, Helen and Bobby, Miss Wanda Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Hinton and son, Aaron of Clarksburg; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hinton and children, Maribell, Martha, Frank, Charlene and John Allen of Lockbourne.

Anniversaries Celebrated

The 18th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richards and the birthday anniversary of Emmett Hinton were observed at a neighborhood get-together, Monday, at the Richards home in Washington township.

After an evening of social visiting, ice cream and cake were served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Elmon Richards and family, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Palm, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bowman, Mr.

111 W. MAIN ST.
ISALY'S
Brick Ice Cream

Chocolate Bubble, Fruit Salad, Lime Breeze

29¢

Social Calendar

TUESDAY
YO-YO SEWING CLUB, HOME Mrs. C. O. Kerns, W. Union street, Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

THURSDAY
U. B. LADIES' AID SOCIETY, community house, Thursday at 2 p. m.
W. C. T. U., U. B. COMMUNITY house, Thursday at 7:30 o'clock.
BUSINESS WOMEN'S CLUB, city cottage, Thursday at 5:30 o'clock.

SUNDAY
CRITES SCHOOL REUNION, Saltcreek township, school, Sunday.
ATER FAMILY REUNION, home Stephen Ater, south of Atlanta, route 277, Sunday.
KARSHNER REUNION, GRIGG'S Dam, Columbus, shelter house No. 3, Sunday.

and Mrs. Guy Stockman, Mr. and Mrs. Turney Kraft and family, Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Frazier and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Floy Brobst and family, John D. Leist, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Leist of Washington township; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin and Wilbur Adkins of Circleville, Mr. and Mrs. Richards and family and Mr. Hinton of the home.

Mrs. Owens Hostess

Two guests, Mrs. Ray P. Reid and Miss Virginia Nelson, joined the players, Monday, when Mrs. Charles Owens was hostess to her bridge club at her home in E. Corwin street. Three tables of contract bridge progressed during the evening. Mrs. Henry Joseph and Mrs. W. H. Nelson, who held high score tallies, received the favors. Confections were served at the tables.

The next club meeting will be at the home of Miss Nelle Anderson, E. Union street.

Rader Reunion

J. C. Rader of Circleville was elected president of the association at the annual reunion of the Rader family, Sunday, at Dewey park. Other officers chosen include Mrs. Willis Corcoran, Chillicothe, vice president; Mrs. Thomas Wright, Jackson township, secretary-treasurer.

About 65 guests were present and enjoyed the day of out-door sports and basket dinner served at the noon hour.

Breakfast at Dun Glen

Miss Mary Newmyer and house guests, the Misses Judy Rada-baugh of Lancaster and Miss Betty Carol Rhodemyer of Ashland, Ky., were included among the 46 guests entertained at a breakfast party, Sunday, by Miss Mary Jane Nisley of Chillicothe. The affair was held at Dun Glen.

Bridge Club Meets

Three tables of contract bridge progressed, Monday evening, when Miss Marvene Holderman of near Kingston was hostess to her club. Mrs. Paul McGinnis of near Kingston, Miss Marie Reichelderfer of Columbus and Mrs. Charles Smith of Circleville were additional guests. After several games, Mrs. John Bell and Miss Bess Fry were found to be winners of the high score prizes.

Lunch was served at the tables during the social hour.

Supper Party

A group of old friends, members of a former crowd of Circleville young people, gathered at the home of Mrs. Frank Goff, N. Court street, recently, and enjoyed a supper party and evening at cards.

Among the guests were Miss Arista Huber, Washington D. C.; Miss Edith Moore and Miss Mabel Moses of Cleveland; Miss Marie Reichelderfer of Columbus; Mrs. Clarence Hott, Mrs. Walter Denman and Miss Lillian Young.

Birthday Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Littleton of Columbus entertained a group of friends at their Summer cottage on Big Walnut Creek, Sunday, at a picnic the occasion marking the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Littleton's mother, Mrs. Anna Leist of Columbus.

Relatives and friends came with well filled baskets and a delightful dinner was served at noon. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palm and Miss Flora Palm of Circleville; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Palm and family of Washington township; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nickelson, Miss Christine Leist, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Leist, Mary Jean and Virginia Littleton, and Mr. and Mrs. Littleton, Columbus.

Country Club Stag Party

Wednesday evening is the time set for the stag party at the Pick-away Country club. Entertainment for the affair will include a twilight golf tournament, motion pictures with action shots of some noted golfers and dinner at 6 o'clock.

Personals

Miss Mary Holman, formerly of Circleville, and friend, Miss Margaret Parker of New York City, arrived Monday to visit for several days with Mrs. William Foreman of S. Scioto street.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Wolfe of South Bend, Ind., visited Mrs. Charlotte Ruff, 159 E. Mound street, Sunday, stopping over on a trip to the East coast.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Weldon and Miss Nell Weldon of Circleville are enjoying a trip through the West, expecting to visit friends in Colorado Springs before going to Yellowstone National Park.

B. M. Holloway of Chicago, Ill., is visiting at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stout of N. Court street.

Miss Mariel Sayre, nature counselor at Camp Ella Logan, Syracuse, Ind., will return to her home in N. Pickaway street, Wednesday, after staying at the camp since July 6.

William Switzer of Toledo is spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Adkins, Jr., of E. Mound street.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young of near Sloutsville accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Tolbert of S. Scioto street are enjoying a motor trip to Niagara Falls and other points of interest in New York.

Mrs. Hannah L. Long, Miss Josephine Long and Frank Collopy of Columbus were Sunday guests at the home of Charles Morris and family of Saltcreek township. Miss Ruth Morris, who had been a guest at the Long home for the last week, returned home with them.

Mrs. T. F. Casey of Cleveland spent Monday in Circleville as a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brunner of S. Court street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Roebuck, Miss Winifred Parrett and MacDonald Curl of Columbus are enjoying a vacation visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roebuck and family at their Summer cottage in Michigan.

Mrs. John W. Eshelman has re-

CONTRACT BRIDGE

APPROXIMATE COUNTING

SOME OF the most expert card-reading is not exact. Its findings are expressed in probabilities or approximations. There are times when a declarer could not be absolutely sure of the distribution of adverse cards, but the true master is a better estimator of the most likely situation.

♠ J 8 7 5
♥ 10
♦ J 9 6 2
♣ A J 10 9

♠ 6
♥ K Q J 5
♦ 7 5
♣ A K 8 3

♠ 4 3 2
♥ W. N. E.
♦ 6 4 3 2
♣ 10 7

♠ A K 10 9
♥ A 9
♦ Q 5 4
♣ K Q 7 2

(Dealer: South. East-West vulnerable.)

Here South bid 1-Spade, West 2-Hearts, North 2-Spades, East passed, South 3-Clubs, West 3-Hearts, North 3-Spades and South 4-Spades.

West took in the diamonds A and K and, in response to East's signal, continued with the suit. East ruffed with the spade 2 and returned the heart 2, which South won with the A.

With three tricks lost, the success of the hand now simmered down to how the trump suit should be handled. With one trump already gone there were four outstanding, and ordinarily they should drop in two rounds. However, declarer considered what sort of hand a conservative West held to bid twice unassisted when vulnerable. Then East's return of the heart 2 indicated no doubt a holding of four, which meant West held six. With four diamonds and six hearts, he probably was short in spades. Declarer therefore played his A, to make sure the Q was not singleton, went to dummy with a club and finessed the spade J.

Tomorrow's Problem

♠ Q 7 2
♥ K 6 5
♦ A 6 3 2
♣ A 8 4

♠ J
♥ 7 3
♦ K J 10 9
♣ K 10 7 5

♠ 10 8 3
♥ J 10 9 8
♦ 8 5 4
♣ Q J 6

♠ A K 8 6 5 4
♥ A Q 4 2
♦ K 7
♣ 9

(Dealer: South. Both sides vulnerable.)

How should South play for 7-Spades after the lead of the diamond Q?

STARS SAY—

For Tuesday, August 23

A FAIRLY active and progressive day is forecast from the predominant planetary configurations. While there may be much stirring on the surface, the important factor may be an undercurrent of influence or secret plans that may come to the open with gratifying results. This may be in connection with cherished plans, probably affecting the employment or standing with superiors, or it may have to do with writings, contracts or promotional enterprises.

If This Is Your Birthday

Those whose birthday it is are justified in expecting a rather lively and successful year, with things happening to promote new enterprises, advance employment or make contracts, or agreements of a very gratifying nature. A child born on this day may be clever, versatile and enterprising, with certain shrewd or subtle qualities that may advance its interests and win it an established place with its superiors. It may write in practical lines.

BEAUTIFUL RINGS

Streamlined, Diamond Set, Onyx, Cameos and Birth Stones. The "something different" you're looking for. Let us show you.

BRUNNERS

DO YOUR IRONING this Modern Way

The Electric Ironer is as great an advancement in laundry methods as was the electric washer. Ironing the modern way consists simply of feeding sheets, shirts, tablecloths, etc. into the Ironer—while you remain comfortably seated.

Ask for a demonstration today.

Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Company

114 E. Main St.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

A NEW TYPE of tulip which is attracting the attention of all tulip lovers is the Lily-Flowered tulip. This unusual tulip was produced by crossing the Retroflexa and the Darwin. It blooms early, at the

of this new tulip group. It is a beautiful satiny, rose-pink, which retains its vivid coloring until the petals fall. It is particularly beautiful when planted in combination with early blue perennials, such as Mertensia virginica.

The violas, lavender, forget-me-nots and nepetas may be cut back now to reduce the space they occupy and to encourage a second blooming season later on.

Lily-flowered tulips same time as the Cottage tulips. As shown in this Garden-Graph, the flower of the Lily-Flowered tulip is very long and has a definite resemblance to the flower of a lily. As cut flowers the Lily-Flowered tulip is decidedly graceful. Sirene is a most popular member

TIME YOUR SCHOOL DAYS WITH A GRUEN

"The proudest name in Time"

Other Gruens $24.75

Send Son back to School with a Gruen.

L. M. Butch
JEWELER
W. JOE BURNS, Manager
Authorized FAITH Jewelers

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Collier of Detroit, Mich., came Monday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Collier of Watt street and other relatives in Circleville.

Mrs. Grace Wentworth of W. Union street returned home, Monday, after a two week's visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Myles Beeler and family of Wooster.

Mrs. Paul Counts of Wayne township was in Circleville, Monday, shopping.

See this Beautiful ADJUST-O-MATIC ROASTER Now!---at PETTIT'S

Adjust-o-matic Roaster-Grill with Broiler Grid is really a complete electric range less than two feet long. Capacity for large roast or 15 lb. fowl—or complete dinner. New sensational Broiler-Grid does both broiling and surface cooking.

SPECIAL AT $12.95

Terms of $1.00 A Week

With the Purchase of a Roaster We Are Offering, for a Limited Time

Regular $4.95 Roaster Stand for only $1.95

PETTIT'S
130 S. COURT ST.

WINTER DÉBUTANTE IN A HEALTHFUL GAS-HEATED HOME

There's a busy winter ahead for this little lady. Although it's her second one in this world—in a way it's her debut. Last winter she was confined to her tiny crib but this year she'll be "coming out" in a big way. She'll be going places all over the house. She'll not find drafty floors and uneven temperatures much to her liking—to say nothing of how such health hazards will jeopardize her chances of becoming a robust youngster. If this little debutante is "coming out" this winter in your home, make sure that inside temperatures are always uniform and healthful by installing automatic gas heat. Request a free heating survey made of your home now. Find out how reasonable the cost of gas heat really is—how very much worthwhile its countless advantages can be to your family.

The Gas Company

GAS DOESN'T COST IT PAYS

HERALD MARKET PLACE

RATES:
One Day—
2c a Word
Three Days—
4c a Word
Six Days—
7c a Word

Classified Ad Rates

To order a classified ad just telephone 782 and ask for an advertiser. She will quote rates and help you write your ad. You may mail your ad to The Cincinnati Herald if you prefer.

WORD RATE
Per word each insertion 2c
Per word 3 consecutive insertions 4c
Per word 6 insertions 7c
Minimum charge one time 25c
Obituaries $1 minimum
Card of Thanks, 50c per insertion
Meetings and Events 50c per insertion.
Publisher reserves right to edit or reject all classified advertising copy. Ads ordered for more than one time and cancelled before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appears and adjustments made at the rate earned. Publishers reserve the right to classify ads under the appropriate headings.
Classified Ads received until 9 o'clock a. m. will be published same day. Publishers are responsible for only one incorrect insertion of an ad. Out of town advertising, household goods, etc. must be cash with order.

Automotive

FOR SALE: Summer Motoring Pleasure. You don't have to own a new car to enjoy "new car performance". Your present car can give it to you. Come in and see us. Nelson Tire Co.

USED REO TRUCK Good condition. Cheap. J. B. Woods, Rosewood Ave.

COMPLETE parts and service for all cars. Next door to City Building. Automotive Parts and Service. Phone 50.

1935 CHRYSLER BROUGHAM Car in perfect condition. For a real buy see this one. CLIFTON-YATES

Mona Motor Oil

STARTERS AND GENERATORS

A Specialty
TIRE REPAIRING

Wards

239 E. Main.

USED CARS

SALES AND EXCHANGE

35 delux Pontiac
35 V-8 Coach
31 Chevrolet Coupe
28 Ford Cabriolet

H. F. McCAIN

360 Logan St.

Financial

WE WILL LOAN you money to buy, build or repair your house or for personal needs. Interest 6%. Scioto Building & Loan Co.

THE YEARS of service shown by the Cincinnati Savings & Banking Co. is known to the people of Cincinnati. Come in Today and let us serve you.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

A Detailed Reference to Business Facilities of Cincinnati

AUTOMOBILE DEALERS

HARDEN-STEVENS CO.
Chevrolet Phone 522

J. H. STOUT
Dodge & Plymouth Phone 271

AUTO EQUIPMENT SERVICE AND SUPPLIES

NELSON TIRE SERVICE
General Tires Phone 475

BAKERIES

ED. WALLACE BAKERY
127 W. Main-st. Phone 158

BEAUTY SHOP

FLORENTINE BEAUTY SALON
115 1/2 E. Main-st. Phone 251

DAIRY PRODUCTS DEALERS

PICKAWAY DAIRY ASSN.
Pickaway Butter. Phone 28

ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT DEALERS

COLUMBUS AND SO. OHIO
ELECTRIC CO.
114 E. Main-st. Phone 236

ELECTRICAL WELDING

YOUNG'S WELDING SHOP
205 B. Pickaway St. Phone 762

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

by Baer

"I got it with a Herald classified ad for my penthouse—my folks are coming up from the farm and I want them to feel at home."

Live Stock

PURE BRED Hampshire Boars, a few gilts due to Farrow in September. Priced reasonable. A. Hulce Hays.

SUMMER CHICKS from our best matings. Started 5 days at no extra cost. Croman's Poultry Farm and Hatchery. Phone 1534.

GUERNSEY Shorthorn Cow with calf by side. Good flow of milk. A REAL cow. G. M. Fitzpatrick.

13 NATIVE GROWN 2 year old Hereford Steers and Heifers, excellent quality. These cattle are ready to start feeding. R. H. Tolle, Hillsboro, O. Phone 300.

Places to Go

COOL OFF!

Spend these hot evenings in the cool atmosphere of

THE FOX FARM

Fine Foods, Liquors and Beer

OPEN TILL 2:30

Route 23 South

GOING away to school? Don't forget to take along several boxes of RYTEX DOUBLE CHECK Printed Stationery . . . on sale for August Only in DOUBLE THE USUAL QUANTITY . . . 200 Single Sheets, or 100 Double Sheets, and 100 Envelopes. Printed with your Monogram or Name and Address. Refreshing pastel shades . . . Blue, Green, Ivory or Orchid. Check at The Herald.

Real Estate For Sale

SOME exceptionally nice farms for sale near Circleville. Farm loans at 4 1/2%.

W. D. HEISKELL
Williamsport, Ohio
Authorized loan agent for Prudential Insurance Co. of America

110 A. FARM fair improvements, $8,000.00; and 63 Acres at $4800.00; 111 Acres at $9500.00; 190 Acres at $20,000.00; 198 Acres at $20,000.00, all with good improvements and locations. A two story modern home with 3 car garage located on N. Scioto Street, priced right; and several others to sell or trade.

See

W. C. MORRIS, Realtor,
Rooms 3 and 4, Masonic Temple.
Phone 234.

FOR SALE OR RENT—40 acre farm, all tillable, 6 room frame house, large barn, 5 other buildings, well fenced, running water. Clarence Helvering. Phone 582 or 67.

Real Estate For Rent

2 ROOM furnished apartment with garage. Phone 1313.

HOUSE, 7 rooms and bath with garage. 116 W. Ohio St. Phone 248.

SLEEPING ROOMS, Phone 1072.

FURNISHED APARTMENT, 146 E. Union St. Phone 419

1 OR 2 furnished light housekeeping rooms. Phone 1251.

Business Opportunity

TRUCK FARM FOR TRADE
A very good 12 acre truck farm near Cincinnati. Has good six room cottage with furnace, small barn, garage and chicken house. Plenty fruit. Spring. Owner will exchange for Circleville residence, investment property or farm. Address: J. R. Allen, 2209 Central Ave., Middletown, Ohio.

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere and heartfelt thanks to my many relatives, friends, and neighbors, for the kindness and sympathy shown me through the death of my beloved husband Roy C. McQuade. I especially wish to thank Rev. O. L. Ferguson, The Rinehart Funeral Home, and many friends who sent lovely flowers.

HIS WIFE,
ELLEN McQUADE.

CARD OF THANKS

To all the many kind neighbors and friends who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved father, the late B. F. Wharton we desire to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks. We also wish to thank Rev. H. A. Sayre, Carl C. Leist, Fred C. Clark, and Mr. P. C. Clark. We wish them to know that all has been deeply appreciated.

MRS. MAUD L. SNYDER,
MRS. BELVA F. GILDERLEEVE

Articles for Sale

SKIM MILK for hog feed. Scioto Dairies. Ashville. Phone 76.

USED FARMALL tractor and corn plow. E. E. George. Rt. 5. Circleville near waterworks.

SOHIO HERD OIL — For cattle spray, $1.00 per gallon. R. E. Norris, Court and Franklin Sts.

SHELL FLY SPRAY proven best, 35c quart, $1.25 gallon, bring container. Goodchild's Shell Service Station, Phone 107.

CANNING TOMATOES 50c bu. Call 930.

NICE canning tomatoes. Call 1361.

9x12 TRIPLE lacquer Linoleum rugs. $3.79. Handy Roll-Away Beds and Mattresses $5.98 to $10.49 R&R Auction and Sales.

UPRIGHT PIANO — Circleville Transfer Co.

Business Service

Introductory Offer

Suits—Dresses—Coat

69c

(Any 2 for $1.30)

City and Rural Pick-up and Delivery

Cen-Oh Cleaners

Seitz Bldg. W. Main St.

Open Till 9:30 Saturday

N. T. WELDON KOAL CO.,
PHONE 714 — W. MAIN ST.

PAINTING and Paper Hanging

J. E. Butt, Kingston, O.

DRINK

IT'S THE REFRESHING THING TO DO.

Buy it in the handy six bottle carton for the home

Have that extra wall socket installed today.

RUSSELL JONES

151 E. High. Phone 883

Employment

WANTED—Electrician experienced in old house wiring. Phone 1971 and ask for Mr. Loudner.

WANTED—Young woman to do house work and care for baby. Good home with pay. Phone Ashville 6013.

WANTED—Housekeeper in family of two. Phone Groveport 23F.5.

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT
No. 12,673
Notice is hereby given that Milton E. Friedman and Leon A. Friedman have been duly appointed and qualified as Executors of the estate of Pauline Friedman late of Pickaway County, Ohio, deceased.
Dated this 20th day of August, A. D. 1938.
C. C. YOUNG,
Judge of the Probate Court, Pickaway County, Ohio (Aug. 23, 30, Sept. 6) D.

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT
No. 12,731
Notice is hereby given that Charles Schuchman has been appointed and qualified as Administrator of the estate of Jennie Hoffman late of Pickaway County, Ohio, deceased.
Dated this 15th day of August, A. D. 1938.
C. C. YOUNG,
Judge of the Probate Court, Pickaway County, Ohio (Aug. 16, 23, 30) D.

State of Ohio, Division of Insurance, Columbus, July 1, 1938—The undersigned, Sup. of Ins. of the State of Ohio, hereby certifies that the FEDERAL UNION INSURANCE COMPANY, whose principal office is located at Chicago, State of Illinois, has complied with the laws of this State applicable to it and is authorized during the current year to transact in this State the appropriate business of insurance. Its financial condition is shown by its annual statement to have been as follows on December 31, 1937: Aggregate amount of available assets, $2,000,000.00; aggregate amount of liabilities (except capital), including re-insurance reserve, $95,905.66; net assets, $1,904,094.34; amount of actual paid-up capital, $1,000,000.00; surplus, $897,094.34; income for the year, $751,099.06; expenditures for the year, $713,232.97.

WITNESS my name and the Official Seal of this division, the day and year first above written. Robert L. Bowen, Sup. of Ins. of Ohio. [Seal]

THESE WANT ADS are born with an ambition to be killed. They live only to serve. Once started, they work untiringly to buy, sell, or rent whatever you desire. When this is accomplished, their work is finished and upon your request they gracefully make their exit.

L. J. JOHNSON SCORES "ACE"

No. 3 Iron Shot Trickles Into Cup At Pickaway Club Course

Lawrence J. Johnson, 322 S. Pickaway street, reached the peak of achievement in golfing, Monday afternoon, when he scored a hole in one on 147-yard No. 2 at the Pickaway Country Club. Playing with Frank E. Barnhill, Johnson smacked a No. 3 iron shot into the cup.

The ball struck on the bank above the green and rolled into the cup.
Mr. Johnson was so amazed that he took a seven on No. 3, taking four shots to get on the green and three putts to get into the cup. His nine hole score was 50.

The hole in one is the third scored at the Pickaway Country Club in its 10 year existence. All were made on No. 2.

Others were scored by Freeman Jones and Frank L. Marion.

FOURTH PLACE FOUGHT FOR IN A. A. LOOP RACE

COLUMBUS, Aug. 23—(UP)—Three places in the American Association's post-season play-off today appeared to have been clinched, but a bitter battle is in progress for the fourth and final berth.

The pace-setting St. Paul Saints, Kansas City and Indianapolis appear virtually certain of their places in the play-off. The fight for the fourth berth is among Milwaukee, Minneapolis and Toledo.

Only one game separates the sixth place Toledo team from Milwaukee in fourth place, but the Mudhens face an uphill battle if they are to get in the play-off. The majority of Toledo's remaining games must be played on the road, while the Brewers and Millers are in their home park.

Toledo lost ground for a play-off position last night when it was beaten 7 to 4 by Kansas City. A five run spurge in the sixth inning netted the Blues their victory. Walter Judnich's double with the bases loaded was the telling blow of the round.

Milwaukee made good use of three home runs to down the Columbus Red Birds 8 to 4. Circuit drives by Ted Gullie, Lin Storti and Joe Just accounted for six of the Brewers' runs.

Vic Frasier hung up his 15th victory of the campaign as St. Paul defeated Indianapolis 8 to 3 in a game that was cut to five innings by rain.

In another contest that was stopped by rain after five innings, Minneapolis trounced Louisville 9 to 3.

TIME WILL DETERMINE IF HUBBELL MAY HURL

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 23—(UP)—The talented left arm of "King" Carl Hubbell, New York Giant ace, was in splints today and physicians held out but slight hope that it would swing again this season for the fading National league champions.

Dr. Spencer Speed, who removed a piece of ragged bone from Carl's elbow yesterday, said he was getting along fine but that it was too early to forecast his future as a pitcher. Only time will tell, he said.

The arm must remain in splints for at least two or three weeks. Then it will have to undergo a long period of careful massaging. Late next month fans probably will know whether one of the game's greatest left arms is through.

YESTERDAY'S HERO — Mike Kreevich, chunky White Sox outfielder who banged Bob Feller for a triple with the bases loaded to lead Chicago to a 4 to 2 victory over Cleveland.

DERRINGER ADDS ANOTHER GAME TO LONG STRING

Cincinnati Ace Pushes His Team Back Into Third Position

CINCINNATI, Aug. 23—(UP)—If the Cincinnati Reds fail to remain in the battle for the National league pennant until the wire is reached it will not be the fault of Paul Derringer, ace right-hander.

As the Reds came home to open a 19 game home stand with a contest against Philadelphia, Derringer boasted of his 17th victory of the campaign as against nine defeats.

The Redlegs' star hurler gained the victory in easy fashion in the concluding game of a series at St. Louis yesterday when he beat the Cardinals 11 to 4.

The triumph was gained in typical Derringer fashion and in a way that would rocket Cincinnati to the championship if it could be emulated by other members of the staff.

Derringer, who this season has had as fine control as any hurler in the league, continually was ahead of the Cardinals batsmen. The big right-hander issued only one pass.

Bases on Balls Few

Control has been Derringer's stock-in-trade this year and helps account for his great record. The Reds' ace has worked 235 innings to-date and has given up only 33 bases on balls.

Derringer was in trouble only once yesterday. The Cards hopped out in front with two runs in the second inning on a single by Joe Medwick and a home run by Johnny Mize, but the Reds erased that margin with a five run spurge in the fourth that drove Curt Davis to the showers and from then out it was a breeze for Cincinnati.

The victory, coupled with a loss by the Chicago Cubs, enabled Cincinnati to climb back into undisputed possession of third place in the standing.

The Reds' usually placid manager, Bill McKechnie, was chased from the field for objecting too strenuously to a decision at home plate. It was the first time this season he had been ejected.

Lloyd (Whitey) Moore, who worked unsuccessfully against the Cards Sunday, was to attempt to atone for the failure against the Phils today. Claude Passeau was slated to be the opposing pitcher.

SAM SNEAD WINS CANADIAN OPEN, PURSE OF $1,000

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 23—(UP)—Sluggin' Sammy Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., was $1,000 richer and possessor of his first major golf championship today.

Already leading money winner on the 1938 circuit, Snead added to his total earnings by subduing defending champion Harry Cooper of Chicopee, Mass., in a 27-hole playoff yesterday for the Canadian Open title.

Both shot 277 for the 72-hole tournament which ended Saturday. At the end of 18-holes yesterday, both had 67, five under par. That necessitated an extra nine holes and Snead won with a grand total of 101 to Cooper's 106.

Snead was 18 strokes under par for the 99 holes he played during the tournament.

SAVE ON PAINT with SHERWIN-WILLIAMS

DAVIDSON HDWE.
107 E. MAIN ST.
PHONE 136

Fisk SAFTI-Flight

The Safe & Save Tire

A PREMIUM TIRE designed to meet the rigid requirements of today's driving needs.

"America's Safest Tire"

Go to Your Nearest C&F Store

The CUSSINS & FEARN

122 N. COURT STREET

Standings

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
St. Paul	75	52	.591
Kansas City	59	56	.512
Indianapolis	68	58	.540
Milwaukee	64	61	.512
Minneapolis	64	62	.508
Toledo	65	64	.504
COLUMBUS	63	70	.431
Louisville	45	80	.360

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
Pittsburgh	67	42	.615
New York	63	49	.563
CINCINNATI	62	51	.549
Chicago	61	52	.540
Boston	53	56	.486
Brooklyn	53	58	.477
St. Louis	50	62	.446
Philadelphia	34	73	.318

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Club	Won	Lost	Pct.
New York	75	34	.688
CLEVELAND	63	45	.583
Boston	61	45	.575
Washington	57	57	.500
Detroit	56	56	.500
Chicago	46	58	.442
Philadelphia	38	70	.352
St. Louis	39	69	.361

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
MILWAUKEE, 8; COLUMBUS, 4.
St. Paul, 8; Indianapolis, 3 (five innings, rain).
Minneapolis, 9; Louisville, 3 (five innings, rain).
Kansas City, 7; Toledo, 4.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

CINCINNATI, 11; ST. LOUIS, 4.
Pittsburgh, 4; Chicago, 2.
Only games scheduled.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

CHICAGO, 4; CLEVELAND, 2.
Only game scheduled.

GAMES TODAY

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
COLUMBUS AT MILWAUKEE.
Toledo at Kansas City.
Indianapolis at St. Paul.
Louisville at Minneapolis.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

PHILADELPHIA AT CINCINNATI.
Boston at Pittsburgh.
(two games)

AMERICAN LEAGUE

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

29

30

31

32

33

34

35

36

37

38

39

40

41

42

43

44

ACROSS

1—Nocturnal birds

5—Meals

9—A wrong

11—Mature

12—A snare

13—By

14—Letter S

15—An advertisement

16—Man's name

18—Fail to hit

20—Devoured

21—Man's name

23—Earlier

25—Cry of a sheep

26—Belonging to you

28—Girl's name

30—Exist

31—A suffix of ordinal numbers

33—South Dakota (abbr.)

34—Shelter

36—A set of three

37—To fashion again

38—The times of a saw

39—A serf

DOWN

1—A monster of fairy tales

2—A cuff

3—Part of the face

4—The diocesan center

5—Companies

6—Single unit

7—Impersonates

8—Second note

9—Of the scale

10—Additional

13—Concentration

15—Breezy

17—Consume

18—Personal pronoun

19—A swamp

21—Disconcert

22—Diminutive of Anne

24—Land measure

27—A form of robbery in the West

29—To the lee

31—Goddess of discord (Gr. myth.)

32—A fine whetstone

35—Newt

36—Definite article

37—Back (prefix)

Indies

ANS

BATTLE

OPAL

LEER

RANA

LEASE

GRAVEL

ADES

I

EDICT

APT

AGO

FOH

AMEND

U

TALL

REARMS

ABED

EZOOMS

FLEEN

EDDA

TERRET

DEER

Answer to previous puzzle

ROOM AND BOARD

By Gene Ahern

HELLO, SPARROW! I'M DOWN HERE IN ROOM 403! WE'RE PLAYIN' POKER AN' MY CLAIM HAS BEEN WORKED OUT! PUT ON YOUR SPURS AN' RIDE DOWN TH' BANISTER WITH MY YELLER SATCHEL—TH' ONE FULL OF CASH, UNDER TH' BED! YEH, THAT'S IT! HURRY DOWN, PAL, ME AN' TH' JUDGE ARE BUSTED!

BUT, TERRY, THE HOUR IS LATE—LET'S STOP NOW!

GREAT CAESAR, HELL ONLY LOSE IT ALL AND THEN WE CAN'T PAY OUR HOTEL BILL! WE'LL EITHER GO TO JAIL OR WASH DISHES FOR A YEAR!

SHOOT THE WORKS

BRICK BRADFORD

By William Ritt and Clarence Gray

A FRIEND OF YOURS, NAMED SAMSA, SAYS YOU ARE AN EXPERT AIR PILOT!

I'M NOT BOASTING, SIR, BUT IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING WITH WINGS AND A PROPELLER—I CAN FLY IT!

GOOD! I'LL LET YOU PROVE IT!

GIVE THIS YOUNG MAN A FLYING OUTFIT! THEN REPORT BACK TO ME IMMEDIATELY, BRADFORD!

GOSH—IT'LL BE GREAT TAKING TO THE AIR AGAIN!

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. Scott

THE ELASTICITY OF SOME OF THE UKRAINE DANCERS IS AMAZING—THEY ARE ABLE TO VAULT THEMSELVES AS HIGH AS A MAN'S HEAD IN THE DANCES

THERE IS A PRETENTIOUS CHURCH IN A CAVE AT THE VILLAGE OF HAUTE ISLE, NEAR MANTES, SEINE-ET-OISE, FRANCE. IT IS ONE OF THE CAVES USED AS A HOME BY CAVEMEN, 20,000 TO 40,000 YEARS AGO

HOW LONG IS AN INCH? ONE BRITISH INCH = 0.9999961 U.S. INCH, OR 2.539997 CENTIMETERS. ONE U.S. INCH = 1.000003 BRITISH INCH, OR 2.540005 CENTIMETERS

POSTAGE STAMPS HAVE MARKED MOST OF THE IMPORTANT EVENTS OF THE 20TH CENTURY, FROM THE OPENING OF THE ASSUAN DAM ON THE NILE IN 1903 THROUGH THE WORLD WAR TO DATE

BLONDIE

I'VE GOT SOME SCANDAL, DEAR FLORRIE AND JOE HAD A BIG QUARREL LAST NIGHT...

JOE CAME IN LATE AND FLORRIE THREW A CHAIR AT HIM—HE WENT OVER BACKWARDS DOWN A WHOLE FLIGHT OF STEPS

MERCY

JOE CAME IN THE OFFICE THIS MORNING LIMPING—HE HAD A BLACK EYE AND AN ARM IN A SLING

I ALWAYS DID SAY FLORRIE WAS TOO NICE A GIRL FOR JOE

DONALD DUCK

By Walt Disney

WALT DISNEY

POPEYE

By E. C. Segar

KING SWEETPEA CALLED ME ON THE PHONE AND ALL HE SAID—

WAS

HE'LL REGRET THAT HE—

WENT—

AT ME OVER THE PHONE

HE CAN'T GET AWAY WITH THAT! I'LL CALL HIM ON THE PHONE RIGHT NOW AND—

I'LL GO

AT HIM

BIG SISTER

By Les Forgrave

JUST LET DONNIE GET HIS NAP OUT AND WE'LL MOSEY ON.

THIS REST WON'T HURT US.

ETTA KETT

By Paul Robinson

GOTTA TAKE OFF, SWEET STUFF, SEE YA WHEN I GET BACK—KEEP YOUR NOSE POWDERED!

HOW YOU EVER LANDED THAT OLD CRATE WITHOUT A CRACKUP, WAS A MIRACLE! NICE FLYING!

ALL LUCK, NOTHING EVER HAPPENS WHILE I GOT MY LIL' MASCOT ALONG. SEE HER PICTURE.

YOUR GUARDIAN ANGEL! WELL I'LL CLIP HER WINGS!

THIS IS AN AIR LINE, NOT A MATRIMONIAL BUREAU! GET THAT PLANE OFF OR YOU'RE FIRED!

SHE'S LOADED

ME FLY? SHE TORE UP MY LUCKY CHARM!! NOT ME! I WOULDN'T EVEN GO UP IN AN ELEVATOR WITHOUT THAT PICTURE!

BUDDY! DID YOU SEE THAT CAR THAT JUST PASSED?

SURE! THAT WAS THE MAN WE PULLED OUT OF THE DITCH!

MUGGS MCGINNIS

By Wally Bishop

PLEASE, MY GOOD MAN, WON'T YOU STRAIGHTEN MY SWORD OUT FOR ME? WHEN YOU BENT IT YOU BROKE MY HEART!! YOU RUINED MY CAREER!! PLEASE FIX IT, KIND SIR!!

TA-TA!

OH, HOW CAN I EVER THANK YOU? I SHALL SEE THAT YOU ARE HANDSOMELY REWARDED FOR YOUR KINDNESS!!

SIR! I SALUTE YOU!! TO SHOW MY APPRECIATION... I WILL GLADLY SHARE MY SWORD WITH YOU, ANYTIME YOU WISH IT!! YOU MAY CONSIDER IT HALF YOURS!!

CLICK!

TA-TA!!

I'LL BET HE'D HAVE GIVEN US A LIFT IF HE'D SEEN US! BUT WE HAD TO BE UP HERE OUT OF SIGHT.

HE WAS HEADED IN THE WRONG DIRECTION TO HELP US, PROBABLY GOING BACK HOME.

ANNUAL OUTING OF DEMOCRATIC CLUB THIS WEEK

Many Pickaway Counties Expected To Attend Lake Gathering

CANDIDATES TO SPEAK

Dr. E. L. Montgomery To Take Part In Meeting For Presidents

A large delegation of young Democrats of Pickaway county plan to spend the week-end at Buckeye Lake park at the annual outing of the League of Young Democratic clubs of Ohio.

The outing, originally scheduled for Aug. 20 and 21, was postponed until this week-end so more candidates could attend the event. Many were on vacations after their campaigns.

Arrangements have been made to take care of more than 10,000 persons at the outing. Charles Sawyer, successful candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor and other nominees for state and national offices will be present. Among those who have indicated their intention to attend the outing are Senator Robert J. Bulkley, James Metzbaum, nominee for lieutenant governor; Secretary of State William J. Kennedy, State Treasurer Clarence H. Knisley, Attorney General Herbert S. Duffy, and a majority of the candidates for congressional seats.

A joint meeting of the executive committee of the state organization and county presidents will be held Sunday at 1:30 p. m. Dr. E. L. Montgomery is president of the Pickaway county club.

MONROE SCHOOL SEEKS BIDS FOR NEW ADDITION

Sealed bids will be received by the Monroe township board of education up to noon on Friday, Sept. 23, for remodeling the school building and constructing a new addition under P. W. A.

Residents of the township approved a $30,000 bond issue at the primary election for the improvements. The federal grant for the project is $30,272.

The addition will include a gymnasium-auditorium, home economics department, science room and laboratory, three additional classrooms and remodeling of the library. A new heating system is to be installed.

MICHIGAN MAN FINED $44 FOR BREAKING GAME LAW

Lon Smith, of Detroit, Mich., paid $44.40 in fines and costs to Mayor W. B. Cady, Monday, for game law violations.

Smith, arrested by Clarence Francis, county game officer, was fined $25 and costs on a charge of hunting without a license and $10 and costs on a charge of hunting without the permission of the landowner. Smith's rifle was confiscated.

LANE RITES THURSDAY

Funeral services for George Earl Lane, 51, who took his own life Sunday by hanging, will be held Thursday at 10:30 a. m. in the United Brethren church, the Rev. Charles Essick officiating. Burial will be in Forest cemetery by M. S. Rinehart. The body will be at the Rinehart funeral home from noon Wednesday until the hour for services.

Model Husband Murders Wife's Lover in Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 23—(UP)—A coroner's jury convenes today to hear the story of Rudolph Sikora, 31, a model husband, who killed the man his wife loved.

His story was one of unrequited love and jealousy—a jealousy so strong he waited on a street corner for five hours yesterday until he saw his rival, Edward Solomon, 35, an accountant, then pumped five bullets from a target pistol into Solomon's body. A dozen passers-by saw Solomon slump to the sidewalk. A score stood by while Sikora carefully placed the pistol on a newspaper near the body, lit a cigarette and awaited for police.

To Replace Khaki

A NEW slate-blue uniform is being tested by the war department in Washington for adoption by the U. S. army. If it stands up under a year of tests, it may replace the traditional olive drab field service uniform now in use. The new uniform is shown as it is worn for field service.

OHIO FUEL GAS COMPANY OPENS HEAT CAMPAIGN

Announcement of the launching of a 13 week sales drive on gas heating equipment was made today by L. Z. Herron, Athens, district sales manager of the Ohio Fuel Gas company. During the campaign all types of modern gas heating equipment for both home and commercial use will be featured. The sales activities will be backed up with a comprehensive newspaper advertising campaign and other sales promotional efforts.

The equipment being featured for home use includes conversion burners, new Winter air-conditioning units, gas furnaces and boilers, circulating heaters and other gas space heaters.

As part of the service of the Gas company during this gas heating campaign, a free heating survey will be made for any family interested in gas heat. This survey includes an inspection of the present heating plant and a reliable estimate of the cost of heating the home or business establishment with gas.

Paul D. Miller, a sales employee of the Ohio Fuel Gas Company, was among thousands of contestants who were named as winners of the grand awards in the "Make-Every-Minute-Count" gas refrigeration selling campaign. The prize was a Hamilton gold watch.

RESIDENTS OF ORIENT VILLAGE TO INCORPORATE

Petition To Be Filed With Election Board Within Next Week

HEARING DATE NEXT

Better Government System Cited By Supporters Of Movement

A petition to incorporate Orient will be filed with the county commissioners in the near future, probably next Monday.

A petition signed by 30 persons, about 20 of them property owners in the village, was brought to Circleville Monday for filing with the board. It was not filed when it was found it was necessary to have a complete description of the section to be incorporated.

After a petition is filed with the county board a public hearing date is set 60 days ahead for opinions from those who favor or oppose the proposition. Prosecutor George E. Gerhardt explained. The commissioners then decide on the issue.

The petition is being boosted by Robert Gruesser, operator of a grocery store in the village, located near the Franklin county line. Some residents believe that by incorporating a better system of local government could be established and more street improvements made.

Theatres

AT THE CLIFTONA

Two new song hits from the pen of Harry Owens, the man who gave the screen last year's "Sweet Leilani," are incorporated in the score of the new Fred MacMurray vehicle, "Cocoanut Grove," now showing at the Cliftona Theatre.

The new tunes are "Dreamy Hawaiian Moon" and "Cocoanut Grove," both delivered by Owens' Royal Hawaiian Orchestra. MacMurray and Harriet Hilliard, radio songstress, do the honors on the other two, "You Leave Me Breathless" by Fried and Hollander and "Says My Heart" by Lane and Loesser.

AT THE GRAND

Olivia de Havilland, star of Warner Bros.-Cosmopolitan "Gold Is Where You Find It," now at the Grand Theatre, has discovered

CARPENTER DIES BY DIVING FROM BENCH ON CHISEL

RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 23 — (UP)—Coroner Roy M. Banks decided today that W. C. O'Connell, 61, an unemployed carpenter, had climbed onto a bench, held a chisel against the bald spot on his head, and dived head-first to the floor of his workshop, thus driving the chisel four inches into his skull.

He listed death as suicide, and said the cause probably was that O'Connell had been suffering severe headaches as the result of an injury. It was at first believed that a hatchet, found near the body, had been used to drive the chisel into O'Connell's head and a physician had doubted that O'Connell could have killed himself in that manner.

Moccasin types

In novelty and sport patterns... by the Star Brand Shoemakers... they'll add that delightfully different touch to your Fall wardrobe.

$2.95

MACK'S SHOE STORE

On The Air

TUESDAY

7:00: Four Corners Theater,CBS.
7:00: Johnny Presents, ...NBC.
7:00: Attorney-at-Law, ...NBC.
8:30: Benny Goodman, ...CBS.
9:00: Hal Kemp,CBS.
9:30: Jimmie Fidler, ...NBC.

ETHEL MERMAN ON RADIO

Ethel Merman, the film and musical comedy star, will be one of the headlines on Rudy Vallee's Variety Hour Thursday. Another act on the bill is John Sebastian, the harmonica player who was postponed from last week's show.

Ethel Merman is one of the stars of "Alexander's Ragtime Band" in the movies and for a long time has been one of Broadway's favorite musical comedy singers.

Other acts for the show to be broadcast over the NBC red network at 7:00 p. m. will be announced later.

FLAGSTED, BRADNA

The greatest Wagnerian soprano in the world, Kirsten Flagstad, of the Metropolitan Opera, joins Preston Foster and Olympe Brandna, of the movies, in the Music Hall as guests of Bob Burns next Thursday. Johnny Scott Trotter's orchestra, the Paul Taylor chorus, the Foursome and Ken Carpenter are other features of the show to be broadcast over the NBC red network.

This is Miss Flagstad's first visit to the Music Hall and the first time she has been presented on the radio in the informal way which is characteristic of the Hall. She will sing "Dich Teure Halle" from Wagner's "Tannhauser" and "Ich Liebe Dich" by Greig.

Preston Foster, seen in dozens of pictures, has a hobby of singing hillbilly songs. In the show next Thursday he'll do one as a duet with Burns.

Olympe Brandna caused a great commotion in the Hall on her last visit when Bing Crosby and Bob Burns had a long argument about how to pronounce her name. She finally settled the matter by spelling it.

how to foil autograph hounds at film previews.

Miss de Havilland tried out her new plan at the preview of "The Great Garrick," in which she plays opposite Brian Aherne, and it worked. She wears a huge hat. The hat is of straw and when she keeps her head down she can see through the brim.

"I walked right through the crowd with my head down and the fans couldn't see under the hat," Olivia says.

SPECIAL SALE OF

STRAW HATS

1/4 to 1/2 OFF

Come In Now!

CADDY MILLER HAT SHOP
125 W. MAIN ST.

TIRE BARGAINS

6.00-16	$6.25
5.50-17	5.85
5.25-17	5.50
5.25-18	5.35
4.75-19	5.05
4.50-21	4.85

GIVEN OIL CO.
MAIN AND SCIOTO

WHY NOT GET Your STOKER FREE

$10,000.00 IN PRIZES

● Think how nice it would be to have a Free-Man Automatic Coal Stoker tend your furnace. It would give you uniform heat day and night—saving you work and worry, time and money.

Free-Man is offering 10 Stokers Free

Clean, Healthful, Automatic, Even Heat with Coal.

and 390 Down Payments in a National $10,000.00 Prize Contest. Come in or phone us as soon as possible and let us show you what to do. Nothing would please us more than to help you get a stoker FREE... Contest closes Sept. 10, 1938. So Come in Today.

Hunter Hdwe., Inc.
113 W. MAIN ST. CIRCLEVILLE, O.

FREE-MAN Automatic STOKERS

Mfg'd. by ILLINOIS IRON & BOLT COMPANY • Est. 1864 • Chicago

Distributed by Standard Sanitary Mfg. Co.

DIVISION OF AMERICAN RADIATOR AND STANDARD SANITARY CORPORATION

ing it O-lamp. Miss Bradna was a movie chorus girl before they made an actress out of her. She comes from a circus family, her uncle being ringmaster of the big circus.

Musical numbers on the program include "Grandpa Snazzy" by the Foursome; "Without Reason or Rhyme," orchestra and chorus; "Small Fry," Foursome and orchestra; and "Silver on the Sage", orchestra and chorus.

AFTER INVENTORY CLEANUP

SALE ON SMALL RUGS

27x48 Axminster Throw Rugs	$1.98
$2.49 values, many patterns
27x52 Heavy Axminsters	$2.50
$3.25 values. A big selection
27x54 Extra Heavy Axminsters	$2.95
$4 to $5 values—now
27x54 Wiltons and Our Best Axminsters	$3.95
Values to $6

GRIFFITH & MARTIN
"WHERE FLOORCOVERING IS A SPECIALTY"

It is officially stated that no fewer than 3,500,000 new houses have been built in England and Wales since the Armistice.

WE HAVE THE CLEANING SERVICE THAT COUNTS!
30 Minute Service
Visit our plant and see our Columbia cleaning unit in operation.
GIVE US A TRIAL

Starkey's
Cleaners and Dyers
Phone 660 701 N. Court St.

Tremendous Savings on FURNITURE

IN OUR

August Furniture Sale

2-PIECE LIVING ROOM SUITE

You can now enjoy the comfort and style of a new LIVING ROOM SUITE at great savings during our August Furniture Sale. This suite as illustrated is covered in a fine velvet cover that will give years of service. The construction is absolutely guaranteed against any defects in materials and workmanship. Remember—now is your chance to save on Living Room Suites—ACT NOW!

3-PIECE BEDROOM SUITE

During our August Furniture Sale we are offering extraordinary values in quality Bedroom Suites. This suite as illustrated in the new Modern style includes Vanity, Chest and Bed. Beautiful walnut matched veneers make this a suite that you will be proud to own. See it this week.

Jenny Lind Beds

An extraordinary Value in a Jenny Lind Walnut Finished Bed. Now is your opportunity to get that extra bed you have been wanting at a great savings. Full or twin size. $11.00 value.

Studio Couch

WITH BACK and ARMS

We know this is the best Studio Couch we have ever offered for $29.95. Better base construction which is reinforced with steel—more springs in the mattress—springs in the pillows. Covered in friezette with reversible mattress and pillows in your choice of rust, green, brown or blue. Opens into a full or twin beds.

Regular $36.50 Value $29.95

MASON BROS.

IT COSTS NOTHING

to look at our Buick trade-ins and you will be surprised at the low cost and condition. 260 purchases will back up our statement that we back up these cars with a guarantee that means something.

35 Chrysler Brougham	395
36 Ford Del. Sedan	375
35 Chev. Spt. Sedan	345
35 Graham Sedan	295
37 Ford Coupe	395
34 Dodge Coach	275

CLIFTON-YATES